RESOLUTION OF THE
HEALTH, EDUCATION AND HUMAN SERVICES COMMITTEE of the 24th NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL -- Second Year, 2020

AN ACTION

RELATING TO HEALTH, EDUCATION AND HUMAN SERVICES; AMENDING LEAVE ADMINISTRATION PROVISIONS OF SECTION X OF NAVAJO NATION PERSONNEL POLICIES MANUAL FOR PURPOSES OF ADDRESSING COVID-19

BE IT ENACTED:

SECTION ONE. AUTHORITY

The Health, Education and Human Services Committee is a standing committee of the Navajo Nation Council. 2 N.N.C. § 400(A). Among various responsibilities, it has oversight authority over employment policies. 2 N.N.C. §§ 400(C) and 401(C)(6). Further, the committee has the enumerated power to establish Navajo Nation policy governing human services and general governmental services. 2 N.N.C. § 401 (B)(1).

SECTION TWO. FINDINGS

Leave provisions of the Navajo Nation Personnel Policies Manual must be amended to address COVID-19, a serious pandemic virus. The virus is extremely contagious. It is necessary that the Personnel Policies be amended to protect the health of employees and their families.

SECTION THREE. AMENDING NAVAJO NATION PERSONNEL POLICIES MANUAL

The Health, Education and Human Services Committee of the Navajo Nation Council hereby amends leave policies of Section X of the Navajo Nation Personnel Policies Manual as follows:

X. Leave Administration

B. Paid Leave

3. Annual Leave

h. COVID-19 Leave

The Navajo Nation recognizes that an employee may have a need to be absent from work due to health issues that arise from the COVID-19 pandemic. COVID-19 leave may be approved for employees who are in need of personal leave due to COVID-19 to care for themselves or a family member, or to be away from the work place as required by his or her employer. Such leave will not require an employee to utilize his or her accrued sick or annual leave. The maximum amount of leave allowed under this policy is 120 work hours. For any additional leave, the employee must request to use his or her accrued annual or sick leave, be approved for Leave Without Pay, or seek Family Medical Leave under Section X(D) of this Manual. This leave will remain available through the duration of any Declaration of Emergency by the Commission on Emergency Management and the Navajo Nation President concerning the COVID-19 pandemic. Such leave is available to employees required to be on duty during the pandemic, and not to employees already on Administrative Leave under Section X(B)(3)(b) of this Manual.

- 1) An employee may request COVID-19 leave under the following circumstances:
 - a. When a family member has tested positive for the virus and requires assistance from the employee,
 - b. When the employee has tested positive for the virus,
 - c. When the employee is required by his or her supervisor to be away from the work place due to 1) exposure to an individual who has tested positive or is suspected to be positive for COVID-19, or 2) if the employee shows symptoms consistent with COVID-19.

- 2) All employees, regardless of length of service with the Navajo Nation, are eligible for leave that meet any of the COVID-19 circumstances listed in Subsection 1). Such approved leave will be paid.
- 3) A request for special COVID-19 leave must be made in writing, for a specified period of time and submitted to the employee's supervisor. The employee shall submit the request, or, if incapacitated due to illness, an authorized family member may do so.
- 4) If proper documentation, as required by Subsection 5) is submitted, the supervisor cannot deny the leave within the maximum 120 work hours. The supervisor may limit the duration of the leave to less than the 120 maximum, in consultation with the employee and the employee's medical provider and as consistent with Center for Disease Control COVID-19 Guidelines. If COVID-19 leave is granted, an employee may not return to work without a doctor's statement or official medical document showing a negative result for a COVID-19 test.
- 5) All leave requests shall be accompanied by appropriate documentation.
 - a. For categories a. and b. under Subsection 1), the employee must submit official medical documents from a medical provider showing a positive COVID-19 test for the employee or a family member, which may include a doctor's note or document from a hospital or other testing facility.

- b. For category a. under Subsection 1), the employee must also submit a written document describing the assistance needed by the family member, and why that assistance cannot be provided by others.
 - c. For Category c. under Subsection 1), the employee must submit a written memorandum from his or her supervisor or program manager that requires the employee to be away from the work place and identifies the amount of time the employee must be away.
- 6) To verify the employee's eligibility for COVID-19 leave, it may become necessary to request information from the employee and/or his/her medical provider. The employee's supervisor can request additional medical information to confirm the employee's need to be absent, to show whether and how an absence relates to the infection, and to know that it is appropriate for the employee to return to work. When requesting COVID-19 leave, the employee must sign a release to allow the supervisor to make such requests to the employee's medical provider.

- 7) All requests for leave and all supporting documentation submitted by an employee must be kept strictly confidential, and information related to the reason for the leave will be restricted to other Navajo Nation employees with a need to know to process the leave, including the employee's supervisor, the Program Manager, and the Department of Personnel Management. Violation of this confidentiality requirement by those employees, or any other employee of the Navajo Nation, is a violation of the Navajo Privacy Act, 2 N.N.C. §§ 91 and 92, and can result in civil and criminal penalties. Such violation may also result in discipline of those employees by his or her supervisor under Offense Number 22 in the Table of Penalties of this Manual.

SECTION FOUR. SAVINGS CLAUSE

Should any provision of these amendments be determined invalid by the Navajo Nation Supreme Court, or the District Courts of the Navajo Nation without appeal to the Navajo Nation Supreme Court, those amendments that are not determined invalid shall remain the law of the Nation.

CERTIFICATION

I, hereby, certify that the following resolution was duly considered by the Health, Education and Human Services Committee of the 24th Navajo Nation Council at a duly called meeting at Window Rock, (Navajo Nation) Arizona, at which quorum was present and that same was passed by a vote of 5 in favor, 0 opposed, on this 3rd day of June 2020.

XXI. DEFINITIONS

I. PERSONNEL POLICIES

A. Purpose

These policies are designed to assist supervisors to deal consistently with human resources issues and to outline the rights, benefits, and what is expected of Executive and Legislative Branch employees.

1. Role of the Navajo Nation

The Navajo Nation determines jobs to be performed, offers employment, and compensates employees for the work performed.

2. Role of Management

Supervisors are responsible for utilizing and applying the personnel policies consistently in dealing with human resources issues. They are encouraged to seek advice from Department of Personnel Management and Department of Justice on the interpretation of the Personnel Policies Manual and in addressing employment issues. Supervisors are expected to provide leadership in implementing the policies and to set positive examples for employees.

3. Role of the Employee

Employees shall read, understand, and comply with policies and procedures that affect or apply to their employment.

4. Role of the Department of Personnel Management

Department of Personnel Management shall develop and implement procedures, as necessary, consistent with the policies contained in this manual. The policies developed must be reviewed by the Department of Justice and approved by the Health, Education and Human Services Committee. Department of Personnel Management will also provide guidance to supervisors and assist in addressing employment issues.

B. Application

These Personnel Policies apply to all employees of the Executive and Legislative Branches of the Navajo Nation government, regardless of funding source or employment status, except where they are specifically excluded. These policies do not create an employment contract by implication and the rights and privileges granted employees are only those specifically stated. These Personnel Policies apply in a limited manner to applicants for employment positions with the Executive and Legislative Branches of the Navajo Nation government, as provided in Section XIV herein.

C. Exceptions

1. Certain categories of employees may be affected by policies and regulations that may take precedence or may supplement these policies.
2. To the extent that programs are required to develop policies that take precedence over or supplement this manual, they shall be reviewed by the Department of Justice and approved by the Health, Education and Human Services Committee prior to implementation by the program. To the extent that programs are required to develop procedures, including alternative or supplemental procedures, that take precedence over or supplement this manual, they shall be reviewed by the Department of Justice prior to implementation by the program. All policies and procedures previously approved by this subsection are expressly ratified, but are still subject to subsequent review.

D. Amendments

These policies may be amended from time to time by the Health, Education and Human Services Committee of the Navajo Nation Council at the recommendation of the Division of Human Resources which include the Department of Personnel Management and divisions of the Executive Branch and the Legislative Branch.

II. MANAGEMENT AND SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITIES

Managers and supervisors are responsible for:

1. Developing and maintaining the highest possible level of performance in their work units.
2. Developing and maintaining good employee working relationships and conduct in their work units.
3. Planning, organizing, directing, coordinating and supervising all functional activities and responsibilities within their assigned work unit.
4. Preparing budgets, performance reports, and other documents as required.

5. Submitting required reports to the Navajo Nation Council, Standing Committees, Commissions and Boards as specified by Navajo Nation law.
6. Implementing personnel policies and procedures as outlined in this manual.
7. Implementing and maintaining internal operating policies, procedures, and control.
8. Safeguarding and accounting for all assets, including but not limited to, funds and property for which there is a custodial responsibility.
9. Representing the Navajo Nation in official functions as directed.
10. Approving or disapproving all documents in accordance with functional responsibilities.
11. Managing employee performance in accordance with established policies and procedures.
12. Coordinating employee background checks as outlined in Section IV.K of these policies.
13. Maintaining reporting relationships consistent with the chain of command.
14. Coordinating activities with other governmental agencies.
15. Upholding the laws and regulations of the Navajo Nation.
16. Monitoring the presence of unauthorized individuals at the worksite and taking appropriate action.

III. EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES

A. Policy

The policy of the Navajo Nation is to comply with all applicable laws that govern the employment relationship between the Navajo Nation and its employees. Consistent with the provisions of applicable laws and policies, the Navajo Nation will not improperly discriminate against any applicant or employee.

B. Navajo Preference

The Navajo Nation gives preference in employment to enrolled members of the Navajo Nation in accordance with the provisions of the Navajo Preference in Employment Act (15 N.N.C. §601 - §619).

C. Other

Whenever necessary, departments and programs may offer preference in employment to other applicants based on funding source requirements; however, in no case may this preference supersede Navajo preference.

D. Second or Outside Employment

1. Full-time employment with the Navajo Nation shall generally be the sole employment of any employee. However, it is recognized that personal situations do occur which might make it necessary for employees to seek supplementary employment.
2. An employee shall not engage in outside or self-employment without prior written approval from the immediate supervisor and the Human Resources Director.
3. An employee who secures outside or self-employment without written approval may be subject to dismissal.
4. An employee may not concurrently hold two full-time positions with the Nation.
5. Additional employment should not impair job performance with the Nation. This includes conflicts of interest, neglect of duty, absence from or tardiness to the workstation, and performing duties associated with additional employment during normal working hours.
6. If an employee is absent from his/her job due to outside or self-employment, the employee shall be required to take leave.
7. Supervisors are responsible for determining whether additional employment adversely affects job performance with the Nation.
8. Honoraria and/or compensation received for occasional seminars, speeches, or presentations are not deemed to be second or outside employment and are not subject to these provisions.

E. Hiring of Relatives

1. To promote consistency and equity in the treatment of all employees, to prevent breaches in confidentiality, to prevent improper influences in employment and to prevent the perception of favoritism, the Navajo Nation will not employ, in any position, the immediate relatives of current employees if:

- a. one is directly supervising the other on a regular basis,
 - b. there is potential for creating an adverse effect on supervision, security, or morale, or the potential for a conflict of interest.
2. For purposes of this policy, the term "relative" is defined as an individual who is related by blood or marriage to the employee as a father, mother, son, daughter, brother, sister, grandmother, grandfather, uncle, aunt, cousin, nephew, niece, husband, wife, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, stepfather, stepmother, stepson, stepdaughter, stepsister, stepbrother, half brother or half sister.
3. If employees become related after employment and a conflict such as described in the above paragraph is created; or, if a reorganization creates such a conflict, 90 calendar days will be allowed to resolve the matter voluntarily or by transfer of one of the employees. If that is not possible, the employee with the most recent date of continuous employment will be released.
4. Employees, members of the Navajo Nation Council, or other committees capable of influencing hiring, evaluation, or other employee actions, and who are related to employees covered by these policies, shall refrain from influencing all actions having to do with such relatives.
5. All applicants for positions with the Navajo Nation shall indicate on the official application form whether they are related to any employee. This information will be used to determine possible conflicts of interest involving the position. If an applicant knowingly answers questions untruthfully concerning the relationship, and this fact later becomes known, the employee will be terminated immediately.

IV. RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION

A. Policy

In general, the Navajo Nation employment process will ensure competitive practices in recruitment, selection, and placement of qualified applicants based on the applicant's knowledge, skills, abilities, and overall qualifications for employment with the Nation. The employment process shall comply with applicable laws of the Navajo Nation.

B. Responsibilities

1. Each Program Manager shall be responsible for:

- a. complying with the employment, recruitment and selection policies and the requirements of applicable Navajo Nation, state, and federal laws;
 - b. notifying the Department of Personnel Management of all vacant positions to be filled;
 - c. defining the duties and responsibilities of the vacant position and, with the assistance of the Department of Personnel Management, the position requirements; and
 - d. making the final selection from among applicants referred by the Department of Personnel Management for a position.

2. The Department of Personnel Management shall be responsible for:
 - a. establishing, implementing and monitoring effective recruitment and selection policies and procedures;
 - b. assisting programs in defining job-related position requirements and determining the most effective recruitment and selection policies and procedures;
 - c. advertising vacant positions;
 - d. establishing selection procedures;
 - e. conducting qualification assessments and referring qualified applicants to the program;
 - f. advising supervisors on personnel policies and procedures, interpretation of requirements, and professional standards for selection methods;
 - g. consulting with supervisors on the availability and qualifications of applicants for specific positions; and
 - h. reviewing, monitoring and evaluating the effectiveness of selection processes.

3. The Executive Director of the Division of Human Resources and the Politically Appointed Division Director, as pertains to Recruitment and Selection, jointly:
 - a. may waive any policies under this Section if the essential program services are being hampered by critical employment needs for a specific class or classes provided that the waiver is not contrary to Navajo Nation law;
 - b. may implement temporary procedures; and
 - c. shall ensure that employees hired under temporary procedures are selected on the basis of the criteria herein.

C. Advertising of Vacant Positions

1. All vacant positions must be advertised for a minimum of 10 working days. Job vacancy announcements may be in-house, outside the Navajo Nation, or submitted to the Department of Personnel Management to be published on the bi-weekly job vacancy listing.
2. A job vacancy announcement is not required when a position is to be filled by:
 - a. departmental demotion of any employee;
 - b. placement of a former Navajo employee with preference for re-employment;
 - c. promotion or transfer of a qualified Navajo who is currently a regular status employee with the Navajo Nation.
3. To ensure compliance with applicable laws and policies, all in-house and outside job vacancy announcements require prior approval from the Department of Personnel Management before posting.
4. Requests for job vacancies to be included on in-house and the bi-weekly vacancy listing published by Department of Personnel Management are to be submitted on the Job Vacancy Announcement complete with all required information.
5. The Department of Personnel Management may consider on a case-by-case basis other job announcement options such as open recruitment and applicant pools to assist programs in filling positions.

D. Application for Employment

1. Navajo Nation employment application forms are available at the Department of Personnel Management or may be downloaded from the Department's website. The application form solicits information from the applicant relating to education, experience, training, residence and other pertinent information. Applicants are required to sign the application which includes a statement that they are certifying to the truth and accuracy of all information provided therein and consenting to the required background check. An unsigned application shall be deemed incomplete and shall be returned to the applicant.
2. Applications may be hand delivered, mailed, faxed, or e-mailed and must be received by the Department of Personnel Management by the close of business on or before the closing date specified on the job vacancy announcement.

3. Applicants shall be required to furnish, at their own expense, education, or other qualifications, which are job-related as may be deemed necessary. In order to receive full credit for education, certification, or licensure, transcripts, copies of degrees, certificates, and other appropriate documents must be submitted along with the employment application.
4. Applicants for a sensitive position must submit a signed and completed employment application and shall comply with Subsection K.
5. Any misrepresentations, falsifications, or material omissions in any of this information or any other materials used in the application process, or information offered during the interviews, may result in the exclusion of the individual from further consideration for employment for that position; or if the person has been hired, termination of employment.

E. Qualification Assessments

1. The Department of Personnel Management or the approved Department/Division shall conduct a qualification assessment on all applications received on or before the closing date specified on the job vacancy announcement. The qualification assessment is based on the information provided on the employment application and other appropriate documents.
2. Applicants who have been determined not qualified may submit a written appeal to the Human Resources Director within ten working days from the date of the non-qualified notice.
3. The results of the appeal shall be considered the final administrative decision.

F. Interview Expenses for Key Positions

1. An applicant interviewed for a key position may be reimbursed for interview expenses subject to the interviewing program's availability of funds. The Division Director will be responsible for designating key positions jointly with the Department of Personnel Management.
2. Reimbursement of interview expenses will be limited to one trip to the interview site and actual reasonable expenses, including commercial fare, car rental, personal vehicle mileage, meals, lodging and other incidental costs.

3. Reimbursements shall not exceed the current travel expense rates established by the Navajo Nation and must be supported by receipts.

G. Referrals

1. Applicants who meet the minimum qualification requirements shall be referred to the hiring department by the Department of Personnel Management in the following order or priority:
 - a. Enrolled Navajos with re-employment preference
 - b. Enrolled Navajo veterans with preference
 - c. Other enrolled Navajo applicants
 - d. Non-Navajo spouses of enrolled Navajos
 - e. Non-Navajos
2. Program Managers shall consider applicants in the same order as outlined in G.1 above. However, the applicant possessing the best qualifications to perform the duties of the position should be selected.
3. Anytime a lower priority applicant is selected over higher priority applicants, the Program Manager shall provide written justification to the Department of Personnel Management setting forth the reasons for the selection.
4. Non-Navajos may be considered only when the applicant pool referred by the Department of Personnel Management does not include persons with higher priority as set forth in G.1 above.

H. Re-employment Preference

1. A regular status employee separated from employment due to a reduction-in-force shall be eligible for re-employment preference.
2. Re-employment preference shall not be granted to employees who have not attained regular status at the time of layoff.
3. Re-employment preference continues for a period of six months from the date of layoff provided the employee does not decline Navajo Nation employment when offered.

I. Selection of a Non-Navajo

1. Prior to hiring a non-Navajo for initial employment, written approval must be obtained from the Division Director. All subsequent personnel actions involving the non-Navajo, such as transfers, promotions or demotion shall also require written approval by the Division Director.
2. The hiring of a non-Navajo spouse, who is eligible for preference, shall require written approval only by the Department of Personnel Management.
3. The non-Navajo shall be required to train a Navajo who is employed in a position similar to the position in which the non-Navajo was hired, provided a Navajo individual is available and is otherwise eligible for the position. The non-Navajo's supervisor shall set a timeline by which this training will be completed.
4. The training requirement will not be necessary if:
 - a. the position requires formal education, certification or licensure and such is only available from authorized or certified entities; or
 - b. the non-Navajo is a spouse of an enrolled member of the Navajo Nation.

J. Selection Methods and Criteria

All selection methods and criteria shall be job related. Selection methods include any assessment or technique used as qualifying mechanisms; physical, education, work experience requirements, formal and informal interviews, and application forms.

1. Age Requirements

- a. Applicants under sixteen years of age shall not be considered for regular employment unless an exception has been made by applicable law or regulation.
- b. For applicants sixteen years and older, age shall not be a factor in employment except for those positions in which bona fide occupational qualifications are required.

2. Physical Qualifications

A person selected shall possess and maintain the minimum physical qualifications necessary to perform essential duties of the position. The Department of Personnel Management, with the assistance of the Program Manager, shall designate those positions for which medical examinations shall be required prior to employment. Whenever the supervisor has reason to believe that an employee's health is adversely affecting his/her job performance, the employee may be required to undergo a medical examination by a licensed physician. The results shall be used to determine continued employment.

3. Polygraph Tests

No applicant or employee shall be requested or required to take a polygraph test as a condition of applying for or obtaining employment.

4. Work and Education Reference Checks

To verify information about an applicant's knowledge, skills, abilities, character, and other qualifications that will be important to successful performance in a new position, job-related inquiries may be made of current and former supervisors. The applicant shall consent to the Department of Personnel Management and/or the hiring department to conduct such a work and education reference check. Information provided by an applicant to obtain employment, which later proves false, shall be grounds for termination.

K. Background Check and Adjudication for Sensitive Positions

1. Policy

The policy of the Navajo Nation is to promote a safe and secure work environment, to provide for the safety of Navajo Nation employees, volunteers, interns, and program participants and to protect the Nation's funds, property, and other assets by obtaining and adjudicating background checks on those positions designated as sensitive. This policy shall be implemented in a manner that protects individuals' right to privacy. Consistent with the provisions of applicable laws and policies, the Navajo Nation shall not discriminate against any applicant or employee.

2. Development and Implementation of Policies and Procedures

The Department of Personnel Management in collaboration with the Office of Background Investigations shall establish procedures relating to obtaining, investigating and adjudicating background checks. Procedures to implement these policies shall be developed and promulgated by the Department of Personnel Management and the Office of Background Investigations.

3. For purposes of this Subsection, child is defined as a person who is less than eighteen (18) years old.
4. Section K does not apply to commissioned law enforcement personnel, employees of the Navajo Nation Department of Corrections, Navajo Nation Head Start Program employees and employees of the Navajo Nation Gaming Regulatory Office.
5. Designation of Sensitive Positions
 - a. In consultation with the hiring department and subject to final approval by the Human Resources Director or designee, the Department of Personnel Management shall designate sensitive positions pursuant to 5.b. Upon designation the Department of Personnel Management shall inform the Office of Background investigations.
 - b. Sensitive positions are those positions with the following job responsibilities:
 - 1) providing child care in a child care facility, or providing for the health, safety and welfare of a child, particularly where responsibility involves direct repetitive contact with a child or unsupervised access to children;
 - 2) providing patient care or providing for the health, safety and welfare of adults and elders;
 - 3) having responsibility for money, receipts and/or disbursement of negotiable instruments, e.g., money, checks and property disbursements;
 - 4) having responsibility for credit data, credit account records or credit transactions;
 - 5) carrying and using firearms;
 - 6) having responsibility for the safety and security of Navajo Nation property;
 - 7) having routine access to security control and key systems;
 - 8) having responsibility for controlled substances or toxic, radioactive or other hazardous materials;
 - 9) having responsibility for confidential information or sensitive data protected by federal, state or Navajo Nation law.
 - c. All job vacancy announcements for sensitive positions shall include notice that a favorable background investigation is required.
 - d. The Navajo Nation shall not hire any applicant for a sensitive position until a background check and suitability assessment have been completed.

- e. Upon designation by the Department of Personnel Management, supervisors shall provide written notice to current employees that their positions require a favorable background investigation.
 - 1) A current employee shall submit a completed security application packet to the Office of Background Investigations within 30 calendar days of receiving notice from his/her supervisor that a background check is required for his/her position.
 - 2) An employee who fails to comply with the background check requirement shall be deemed ineligible for continued employment pursuant to the Table of Penalties.
 - 3) A supervisor who fails to notify their employee, in writing, that a background check is required shall be disciplined pursuant to the Table of Penalties.
 - 4) An extension may be granted to an employee who has demonstrated good cause for exceeding 30 calendar days. All extensions must be in writing and approved by the Office of Background Investigations Manager. The Office of Background Investigations shall provide written notice of all approved extensions to the Department of Personnel Management.

6. Applicability

These policies apply to all employees who are regular status, seasonal, at-will, or temporary, applicants, volunteers, interns, and to employees who are assigned (i.e., transfer, promotion or position reclassification) to a sensitive position. Background checks conducted and completed by other agencies shall not be accepted in lieu of background checks conducted by the Office of Background Investigations.

7. Required Documents for Sensitive Positions

- a. A security packet containing the following documents shall be submitted to the Office of Background Investigations by an applicant being considered for employment into a sensitive position or an employee who is occupying a sensitive position:
 - 1) a Security application;
 - 2) a valid State Driver's License or State Identification Card;

- 3) a Social Security Card or if not a United States Citizen, the applicant's Visa; and
- 4) a current Navajo Nation tribal criminal history report.

A security packet that does not include all of the above documents shall be deemed incomplete and will not be processed.

- b. Individuals are required to provide accurate and complete information, and not to omit material information needed to make a decision. Any misrepresentation, falsification or material omissions in any information provided to the Office of Backgrounds Investigations may result in the exclusion of the individual from further consideration for employment for that position; or if the person is employed, termination of employment.

8. Background Check

Every applicant, employee, volunteer or intern applying for or employed in a sensitive position must give written consent to the Navajo Nation to obtain a criminal background check. If an individual's criminal history includes plea(s) of guilty or no contest to or convictions of any offense under federal, state, including county and municipal, and Navajo Nation or other tribal jurisdiction, the Office of Background Investigations shall determine, upon investigation and adjudication, whether the offense(s) may bear upon the individual's fitness to perform the duties of a sensitive position. An unfavorable result shall be grounds for nullifying an offer of employment or terminating employment.

If an individual's criminal history includes convictions that are identified by federal or Navajo Nation law as mandatory grounds for prohibition of employment in sensitive positions, a suitability assessment shall not be conducted, and an offer of employment shall not be made or employment shall be terminated.

An employee shall be given an opportunity to refute, correct or explain the unfavorable information by submitting a written response with an explanation of the background information, and such information must be supported by documentation in the form of unaltered law enforcement, court or other applicable documentation.

If the funding sources of certain Navajo Nation programs such as the Office of Youth Development require additional or more stringent standards, the Office of Background Investigations shall apply such requirements in conducting background checks.

- a. If plea(s) of guilty or no contest to or convictions of the following are included in an individual's background check and have been verified, an applicant shall not be hired or employment shall be terminated for those sensitive positions specified under Subsection K.5.b.1:
 - 1) any felony;
 - 2) any misdemeanor involving a child including but not limited to sexual or physical abuse or neglect;
 - 3) any 2 or more misdemeanors involving crimes of violence, sexual assault, molestation, exploitation, contact or prostitution, crimes against persons.

- b. If plea(s) of guilty or no contest to or convictions of the following are included in an individual's background check and have been verified, a suitability assessment shall be conducted of the individual's fitness for being hired or assigned to a sensitive position, as specified under Subsection K.5.b.1:
 - 1) any misdemeanor involving controlled substances;
 - 2) any other conviction that may negatively bear on an individual's fitness to have responsibility for the health, safety and welfare of children, youth, adults, and elders.

- c. If plea(s) of guilty or no contest to or convictions of the following are included in an individual's background check and have been verified, a suitability assessment shall be conducted of the individual's fitness for being hired or assigned to a sensitive position, as specified under Subsection K.5.b.2:
 - 1) any felony;
 - 2) any misdemeanor involving a child;
 - 3) any 2 or more misdemeanors involving crimes of violence, sexual assault, molestation, exploitation, contact or prostitution, crimes against persons;
 - 4) any misdemeanor involving controlled substances;
 - 5) any other conviction that may negatively bear on an individual's fitness to have responsibility for the health, safety and welfare of adults and elders.

- d. If plea(s) of guilty or no contest to or convictions of the following are included in an individual's background check and have been verified, a suitability assessment shall be conducted of the individual's fitness for being hired or assigned to a sensitive position, as specified under Subsection K.5.b.3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9:

- 1) any felony;
 - 2) any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, fraud, misrepresentation, embezzlement, theft, controlled substances;
 - 3) any other conviction that may negatively bear on an individual's fitness to have responsibility for the sensitive positions in this Subsection.
- e. If plea(s) of guilty or no contest to or convictions of the following are included in an individual's background check and have been verified, a suitability assessment shall be conducted of the individual's fitness for being hired or assigned to a sensitive position, under Subsection K.5.b.5:
- 1) any felony;
 - 2) any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, fraud, misrepresentation, embezzlement, theft, controlled substances;
 - 3) any misdemeanor involving a child;
 - 4) any 2 or more misdemeanors involving crimes of violence, sexual assault, molestation, exploitation, contact or prostitution, crimes against persons;
 - 5) any misdemeanor involving controlled substances;
 - 6) any other conviction that may negatively bear on an individual's fitness to have responsibility for the sensitive positions in this Subsection.
- f. As a condition of employment, a background check shall be conducted every three (3) years for each employee occupying a sensitive position, unless otherwise specified by funding source, laws, regulations or pursuant to the Acknowledgment of Understanding form.
- g. Pursuant to the Acknowledgement of Understanding an employee in a sensitive position consents to report to his/her supervisor, in writing, within 72 hours of any arrest, criminal indictment, or conviction. The supervisor within 72 hours of receiving notice from the employee shall report the information to the Office of Background Investigations. Upon receipt, the Office of Background Investigations shall determine if a new background check is required. Failure to report may result in disciplinary action pursuant to the Table of Penalties.

9. Suitability Assessment

- a. If there are no mandatory disqualifying convictions, the Office of Background Investigations shall conduct a suitability assessment for employees applying for or occupying a sensitive position. A suitability assessment shall consist of the following information:
- 1) Criminal history reports, including arrest reports (federal, state, local, municipal and tribal jurisdictions)
 - 2) Outstanding Warrants
 - 3) Other negative information that may bear upon an individual's fitness to perform the duties of a sensitive position may be considered from other governmental entities including Navajo Nation courts, the Ethics and Rules Office, White Collar Crime Unit, Navajo Division of Public Safety, the Office of the Chief Prosecutor, the Department of Personnel Management, the Office of the Auditor General and State Motor Vehicle Departments.

10. Adjudication

The Office of Background Investigations shall issue a favorable or unfavorable determination based on the results of a background check and/or suitability assessment.

11. Navajo Nation Privacy and Access to Information Act

The Navajo Nation shall treat all documentation related to background check, suitability assessment and adjudication in accordance with the Navajo Nation Privacy and Access to Information Act.

L. Offer of Employment

1. The offer of employment will be extended by the Human Resources Director to the individual selected by the Program Manager if the selection is consistent with existing policies and criteria established for the job, except where the authority to offer employment is specifically delegated.
2. The Division Director and the program director/manager shall also approve the proposed pay rate before an offer of employment is made to an applicant.

3. The Division Director and the program director/manager shall not offer or approve employment if selection was done contrary to the Personnel Policies or Navajo Nation law.

M. Moving Expenses

Subject to the hiring program's availability of funds, moving expenses for key positions, in whole or in part, may be paid by the hiring program.

V. EMPLOYMENT STATUS

Employment status varies with the position and conditions of employment. Supervisors, working jointly with the Department of Personnel Management shall ensure that employees are properly designated.

A. The Navajo Nation has six categories of employment status:

1. Regular full-time

Employees who are hired to work the regularly established 40-hour workweek and who remain employed full-time upon completion of the introductory period.

2. Regular part-time

Employees who work less than the regularly scheduled 40-hour workweek but not less than 20 hours per week and who remain employed part-time upon completion of the introductory period.

3. Seasonal

Employees who work less than one year on a full or part-time basis due to the nature of the position and/or funding level. Seasonal employment is usually applicable to jobs that occur on an intermittent or seasonal basis.

4. At-will

There are two categories of at-will employees:

- a. Professional at-will employees are those who serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General, Chief Prosecutor, Executive Director of the Navajo Nation Washington Office, the Public Defender Commission, or other official or employee as provided by Navajo Nation law (See Definitions, Section XXI for reference to the Navajo Nation Code). This designation does not include any employee who receives deferred compensation.

- b. Political at-will employees are those who serve at the pleasure of the President, the Navajo Nation Council, or the Speaker of the Navajo Nation Council. Political at-will employees receive deferred compensation.

5. Temporary

- a. Temporary employees are those who are hired as interim replacements or to supplement the work force, or to assist in the completion of a specific project.
- b. Employment of a temporary to fill a vacant regular status position is limited to a maximum of six consecutive months in a program's fiscal year.
- c. Employment of a temporary in a 2320 account is limited to a maximum of six consecutive months in a program's fiscal year; however, a temporary employee may be extended for a maximum of an additional six consecutive months where, the program justifies maintaining the position as temporary or budget the position as regular status.
- d. Employment of a temporary beyond any initially stated period does not in any way imply a change in employment status. Temporary employees retain that status unless and until notified of a change.
- e. While temporary employees receive mandated benefits (such as workers' compensation insurance and Social Security), they are ineligible for Navajo Nation benefit programs including annual and sick leave accrual.

6. Volunteers

Persons who offer and provide unpaid assistance or services to the Navajo Nation for a specified time period. Supervisors must arrange for appropriate coverage under workers' compensation.

B. Introductory Period

The Introductory Period is intended to give employees the opportunity to demonstrate the capability to perform assigned job duties at a satisfactory level of performance and to determine whether the position meets their expectations. The Navajo Nation uses this period to evaluate employee capabilities, work habits, and overall performance.

1. Immediate supervisors will provide performance standards for successful completion of the introductory period.
2. These policies do not apply to temporary employees or At-will employees.

3. The three types of introductory periods are:
 - a. 90-day Introductory Period
All new employees, except At-will employees and Police Officers, hired in a regular or seasonal position will work on an introductory basis for the first 90 calendar days after their date of hire. The introductory period shall begin on the first day of employment and end at the end of the work day on the 90th calendar day. A regular status employee will be subject to only one new employee introductory period during any continuous term of employment, except that employees transferring to Police Officer positions will be required to serve a one-year introductory period.
 - b. Supervisory Introductory Period
An employee promoted or transferred to a supervisory position or higher level supervisory position, will be subject to a supervisory introductory period of 90 calendar days. An employee promoted or transferred to a supervisory position continues to utilize leave benefits during the supervisory introductory period.
 - c. One Year Introductory Period
All police officers are required to serve a one year introductory period; however, they shall be eligible to utilize leave benefits after 120 calendar days
4. Periods of temporary employment cannot be used to satisfy the introductory period requirement. Leave benefits accumulate but cannot be used during the 90-day introductory period.
5. During the introductory period, new employees are eligible for those benefits required by law, such as workers' compensation and Social Security. After obtaining regular status, employees will also be eligible for other Navajo Nation provided benefits, subject to the terms and conditions of each benefits program.
6. Unsatisfactory Performance or Conduct
 - a. If, during the 90-day introductory period, the employee's performance or conduct is found to be unsatisfactory, the immediate supervisor may terminate the employee for just cause, provided that the employee is given contemporaneous written notification citing the reason(s) for the termination.
 - b. Termination of new employees within the introductory period voids accrued annual and sick leave. Supervisory and transferred employees will receive payment for all accrued annual leave.

7. Failure to Complete Supervisory Introductory Period

- a. Employees failing to successfully complete their supervisory introductory period will be returned to their previous position, if it is available, at their prior rate of pay. If the previous position is not available, they will be considered for a comparable position. If a comparable position is not available, they will be laid off and placed on preferential status for re-employment.
- b. Employees failing to satisfactorily complete a supervisory introductory period will not be considered for another supervisory position for a period of 12 months.

8. Extension of 90-day Introductory Period

- a. If a supervisor determines that the introductory period for a new employee does not allow sufficient time to thoroughly evaluate the employee's performance, he/she may request that the introductory period be extended for thirty calendar days.
- b. The supervisor's request to extend an employee's 90-day introductory period must include a statement regarding the employee's current performance levels in assigned areas of responsibility and justification for extension. The supervisor must also notify the employee of the extension, in writing, before the conclusion of the initial introductory period. If timely notice is not provided to the employee, the request will be denied.

9. If any introductory period is interrupted by an employee's extended absence due to medical reasons, the introductory period may be extended the number of calendar days the employee was absent.

10. Conversion to Regular Status

- a. When an employee satisfactorily completes an introductory period, the immediate supervisor is required to submit a performance appraisal for him/her to the Department of Personnel Management along with the personnel action form. This will convert the employee's introductory status to regular status.
- b. If the immediate supervisor fails to notify, in writing, the employee and the Human Resources Director of the conversion status at the end of any introductory period, the Human Resources Director is authorized to initiate action to convert the employee to regular status.

11. Re-employment after Break in Service

Former employees rehired after any break in service, are considered new employees and will be subject to another introductory period regardless of a previous completion. The exceptions are those re-employed after a layoff. They are eligible for reinstatement for a period of six months after layoff.

C. New Employee Orientation

1. New employees are required to attend an employee orientation within 90 calendar days of employment date. All supervisors shall allow new employees to attend the orientation as scheduled.
2. The new employee orientation shall include an overview of general operating policies and procedures, employee benefits, and an overview of the Navajo Nation organizational structure, and reporting relationships.
3. All employees are required to read and affirm in writing that they are familiar with the Personnel Policies Manual.
4. Supervisors are required to provide an employee orientation to newly hired and transferred employees. This orientation shall include program specific topics, such as work unit goals and objectives, office and workstation regulations, and job and performance expectations.

D. Basic Workweek

The basic workweek is seven days - Saturday through Friday. Standard hours of work for all employees are 40 hours per week.

E. Basic Tour of Duty

The basic tour of duty is from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

1. Breaks

Employees are entitled to a midmorning and a mid-afternoon break, each break time not to exceed 15 minutes. Employees cannot accumulate break time.

2. Standby Duty

Certain work operations require that employees be placed on standby and available for duty. If called, employees required to remain on duty during emergency situations for extended periods will receive rest and meal periods.

3. Time Records

Time records will be maintained for each employee to accumulate and report the following: hours worked, hours absent, hours on approved leave, type of approved leave, and hours of unauthorized absence. Time records must be submitted for payroll purposes.

F. Alternative Work Schedules

1. Exceptions to the basic tour of duty may be approved by the Department or Program Managers with written notification and written work schedule submitted to the Department of Personnel Management, Payroll and Risk Management.
2. Alternative work schedules are generally dependent upon the specific working conditions and needs of the requesting program or department.
3. Department of Personnel Management will be responsible for developing and issuing procedures on the types of alternative work schedules available. (Flextime, compressed workweek, shift work, job sharing, and telecommuting)

VI. CLASSIFICATION OF POSITIONS

A. Policy

It is the policy of the Navajo Nation to establish and maintain a classification plan which groups jobs based upon similar duties, responsibilities, and qualification requirements.

B. Equivalency Clause

To establish job descriptions/classifications, programs must:

1. Establish minimum qualifications for a position, whether a certain number of years of experience, a specific educational requirement, or both for qualification assessment; and

2. Establish preferred qualifications for a position, whether a certain number of years of experience, a specific educational requirement, or both in seeking the best qualified candidate.

C. Position Classification Plan

1. Purpose

To establish and classify positions by assigning official class titles, providing descriptions of duties and responsibilities, determining qualification requirements and setting pay rates based on duties and responsibilities.

2. Modifications

Divisions/Departments will coordinate with the Department of Personnel Management to modify the position classification plan through establishing new classes, revising or abolishing existing classes, setting new entry level rates, and other related criteria, as necessary. Final authority to modify classification plan lays with the respective Appointed Division Directors and Executive Director of the Division of Human Resources.

3. Coverage and Exclusions

All positions, regardless of the source of funding, are covered by the classification plan except those designated as Political at-will and temporary accounts.

D. Classification of New Positions

1. A position must be officially classified before a supervisor can take any personnel action with respect to employment, transfer, promotion, demotion or salary.
2. The Divisions/Departments shall be responsible for evaluating and classifying each position to the appropriate class. Consideration will be given to the general duties, tasks, responsibilities, and qualification requirements.
3. The approved class title, as designated by Department of Personnel Management, shall be utilized for all official records.
4. The Department of Personnel Management shall be responsible for maintaining the official class specifications and will provide each program a set of the relevant class specifications.

E. Reclassification of Existing Positions

A position can be reclassified whenever a material and permanent change in the duties and responsibilities of the position occurs.

1. Significant and permanent changes in the duties and responsibilities of the position must be reported to the Department of Personnel Management on the appropriate form.
2. A position must be officially reclassified before a supervisor can take any personnel action with respect to employment, transfer, promotion, demotion, or salary. The Department of Personnel Management shall be responsible for evaluating and reclassifying positions with the direction and authorization of the Executive Director of the Division of Human Resources.
3. Reclassification shall not be used as a means to resolve performance-related problems, grievance issues, or to take the place of disciplinary actions.
4. An employee occupying a reclassified position shall be entitled to continue to serve in the reclassified position, if the employee meets the qualification requirements and provided that the reclassification action does not result in the position being reclassified from a non-sensitive position to a sensitive position.
5. In the event that a position is reclassified from a non-sensitive position to a sensitive position, the employee shall be required to undergo a background check and suitability assessment as outlined in Section IV.K prior to taking any personnel action with respect to change in position title and salary.
6. If the employee is a regular status employee, he/she will retain that status.

F. Notice of Classification or Reclassification Decisions

For each position classified or reclassified, the Department of Personnel Management will issue written notice of the decision to the Program Manager. The decision will specify the class to which the position has been allocated and the pay grade assigned. The supervisor will be responsible for initiating the necessary paperwork to reflect the decision.

G. Review of Classification or Reclassification Decisions

The supervisor may request a review of the classification or reclassification decision by filing a written appeal with the Human Resources Director. The review shall be conducted by someone other than the person making the original classification decision, and this person shall consult with the Executive Director of the Division of Human Resources in conducting the review. The results of the appeal shall be considered the final administrative decision.

H. Effective Date of Classification or Reclassification Decisions

The effective date of classification or reclassification decisions shall be the beginning date of the pay period following the date of approval and shall not be retroactive.

VII. SALARY AND WAGE ADMINISTRATION

A. Policy

It is the policy of the Navajo Nation to pay wages and salaries that are commensurate with the type of work, the level of responsibility and the qualifications required for each job and that are comparable subject to budgetary constraints, to rates being paid for similar work within the Navajo Nation and in other comparable organizations, and to provide for salary adjustments for Navajo Nation employees that are equitable and competitive.

B. Applicability

These policies apply to all positions and employees, regardless of the funding source, except employees whose rates of pay are specifically set by legislation.

C. Salary and Wage Limits

1. Each position in the Navajo Nation government is evaluated using a classification system and is assigned a pay grade which establishes the value of the position in relation to other positions within the Navajo Nation government.
2. The Official Salary Schedule provides pay grade for all classes. Each class title is assigned a pay grade in the approved salary schedule. For every pay grade, there is a "salary range" progressing from minimum to a maximum.
3. The last step of the pay grade assigned to a position provides the maximum limit employees will be paid for that job.

D. Salary and Wage Administration

1. Each position shall be reviewed by Department of Personnel

Management, classified, and assigned to a grade within the pay structure that reflects an equitable value relative to other classifications.

2. The Department of Personnel Management will annually establish an appropriate pay structure consistent with G.5 herein and any other pay structures necessary to ensure internal and external equity based on the current market average.
3. Certain occupations may command Special Pay Ranges (premium pay) based on prevailing market pay levels. Department of Personnel Management is responsible for evaluating eligibility and determining the adjusted ranges.
 - a. The special ranges shall be effective for one fiscal year.
 - b. Continued eligibility for the special rate shall depend on an annual evaluation of market pay levels.
 - c. If the special pay range is lower than the standard range, and range reduction results in an employee being above the maximum step, that employee's pay will be frozen until such time that it falls within the established range.
4. The Executive Director of the Division of Human Resources and the Appointed Division Directors may jointly adjust the pay rates of employees at certain worksites to reflect the cost of labor difference using appropriate locality pay data. This will include, but not be limited to, the Navajo Nation Washington Office.
5. The Executive Director of the Division of Human Resources and the Appointed Division Directors may jointly consider additional factors such as remoteness of worksite and hard to fill positions in determining and adjusting pay.

E. Appointment Rate

The Department of Personnel Management is responsible for reviewing appointment rates based on the qualifications of the applicant compared to the established minimum qualifications for the position with the exception of programs.

1. New employees will generally be assigned by Department of Personnel Management to Step "A" of the pay grade to which the position is assigned. No employee will be paid below Step "A".
2. Applicants with qualifications greater than those required at entry level may be hired at a rate within the "salary range" of the pay range assigned.

3. The Executive Director of the Division of Human Resources and the Appointed Division Directors may jointly waive the requirements under this subsection provided it is not contrary to Navajo Nation law and hire at a rate within the established "salary range."

F. Special Recruitment Rates

When all recruitment and selection procedures have been followed and an applicant cannot be recruited, a special rate may be authorized. The authorization must be requested in writing and approved jointly by the Executive Director of the Division of Human Resources and the Appointed Division Directors prior to recruitment. Special rates are subject to division approval and funds availability.

G. Pay Adjustments

Pay adjustments resulting from a promotion, transfer or reclassification of a position are effective the pay period following the date of approval by the Department of Personnel Management and shall not be retroactive.

1. Transfer

If an employee is transferred from one position to another in the same grade (lateral) no pay adjustment will occur. If transferred to a position in a higher grade, see G.3 below. If transferred to a position in a lower grade, see G.4 below.

2. Reclassification

- a. If an employee's position is reclassified which results in the assignment of a higher pay grade, the employee's pay will be adjusted as outlined in G.3 below. If the reclassification results in the assignment of a lower pay grade, the employee's pay will be adjusted as outlined in G.4 below; or if the grade assignment remains the same, then no pay adjustment will occur.
- b. The eligibility date for the next step increase will be adjusted pursuant to G.6 below whenever a pay increase occurs.

3. Promotion

An employee is promoted when he/she is moved from one position to another that is in a higher grade. Pay adjustments can be made as follows:

- a. an employee meeting the minimum qualifications for the new position will be paid at Step "A" of the assigned pay grade.
- b. notwithstanding G.1 above, based on an employee's qualifications, an increase of up to two steps may be granted and shall not exceed the maximum of the pay range assigned. The employee's eligibility date for the next step increase will be adjusted pursuant to G.6 below.

4. Demotion

An employee is demoted when he/she is moved from one position to another in a lower grade. His/her rate of pay shall be reduced to the same step in the lower pay grade or the entry level rate of the lower pay grade. The salary adjustment shall not be to a rate below Step "A".

5. General Wage Adjustment

Each year the Department of Personnel Management will recommend a General Wage Adjustment. The effective date will be determined by the Department of Personnel Management. All employees will receive that same percentage adjustment, with the exception of those assigned grade step code 99A. The General Wage Adjustment does not impact the eligibility date for employee step increases.

6. Step Increases

A regular status (full-time and part-time) employee whose performance is rated as "Significantly Exceeds Standards" or "Outstanding" will receive a step increase pursuant to the following:

- a. An employee must have been in his/her current position for at least six months during the current rating period.
- b. The step increase will be effective one year from the date of the last step increase or on the employee's anniversary date, if the employee is at Steps "A", "B", "C", "D", or "E", two years from the date of the last step increase or on the employee's anniversary date, if the employee is at Steps "F", "G", "H", or "I", or three years at Steps "J" and "K". If the employee is at Step "L", no step increase will occur.
- c. All step increases shall be reviewed and approved by a committee, meeting monthly, comprised of a representative from and appointed by the heads of, the Department of Justice, Division of Human Resources, Department of Personnel Management, and the Office of Legislative Services and will be referred to as the Step Increase/Bonus

Review Committee.

7. Acting Status Assignment

- a. An employee on acting status assignment must be compensated at the first step of the assigned grade for the duration of the assignment if he/she meets the requirements of the position and is approved by the Department of Personnel Management prior to the assignment.
- b. If an employee's current salary equals or exceeds entry level for the acting status position, the employee may receive a one step increase for the duration of the assignment.

H. Holiday Pay

1. Any employee who is required to work on a holiday and does work shall be paid at twice his/her regular rate of pay for hours worked.
2. Holiday pay will cover only those hours worked in one day.
3. Early release of employees is not counted as a holiday when calculating holiday pay.

I. Merit Pay Bonus

Merit pay bonus payments are lump sum payments, excluding applicable taxes and deductions, awarded to employees for performance.

1. Cash awards may be given to eligible employees based on their overall performance during the applicable rating period.
 - a. Eligibility for Merit Pay
 - 1) An employee must be regular status (full-time and part-time) with at least one year of continuous service with the Navajo Nation and six months in his/her current position.
 - 2) An employee must be recommended for merit pay by the immediate supervisor and approved by the Step Increase/Bonus Review Committee.
 - 3) An employee must have an overall performance rating of "Significantly Exceeds Standards" or "Outstanding".
 - 4) An employee is deemed ineligible for merit pay if he/she terminates employment prior to approval by the Step Increase/Bonus Review Committee referenced above.

5) An employee must not have received a step increase or bonus for the same rating period.

2. Merit bonus payments will be processed in accordance with procedures developed and issued by the Department of Personnel Management and approved by the Step Increase/Bonus Review Committee.

J. Bonus Payments

When it is determined by the Department of Personnel Management to be in the best interest of the Navajo Nation, bonus payments may be considered and approved by the Step Increase/Bonus Review Committee and the committee will address these requests on a case-by-case basis.

K. Shift Differential

Shift differential may be paid provided funds are available and a request is approved by the Department of Personnel Management. Shift differential will be consistent with local industry practices.

L. On Call

Department of Personnel Management is responsible for developing and issuing procedures for compensation of employees on call.

M. Pay Advances

1. An employee may request a pay advance in the following situations:

- a. When an employee is required to travel on official business. Travel must be in accordance with existing travel policies.
- b. Serious illness or death in the immediate family. See procedures for requesting "emergency" pay advances for serious illness or death in the immediate family issued by the Office of the Controller.

2. All pay advances will be deducted in accordance with the current payroll processing.

VIII. OVERTIME

A. Policy

It is the policy of the Navajo Nation to authorize overtime when necessary to meet essential operating needs of the Navajo Nation subject to existing funding and contract requirements.

B. Exempt/Non-exempt Classification

All positions will be classified as either exempt or non-exempt to determine eligibility for overtime compensation.

1. Exempt: managerial, professional, and administrative positions. Employees assigned to exempt positions are not eligible for overtime compensation.
2. Non-exempt: nonsupervisory or office staff positions. Employees assigned to non-exempt positions are eligible for overtime compensation.
3. Department of Personnel Management is responsible for determining the exempt or non-exempt status of each position.

C. Authority to Approve Overtime

The Program Manager may authorize overtime consistent with these policies. However, prior to working overtime, non-exempt employees must agree to the type of compensation preferred, cash payment, compensatory time off, or a combination of the two.

D. Employee Notification

The Program Manager shall notify the employee in advance that overtime is necessary and the employee is expected to work. In assigning overtime, the Program Manager will take into account employee preference for overtime assignments. To the extent feasible, overtime shall be distributed equally among full-time employees of the same classification.

E. Compensation for Overtime Work

1. Cash Payment – Whenever an employee is approved to work overtime, payment for the overtime must be processed within the next pay period ending.
 - a. Non-exempt employees shall be paid for overtime at the rate of one and one-half times their regular rate for hours worked which exceed forty hours of actual work in a workweek. Exception: Employees engaged in public safety activities will be paid the overtime rate for hours worked which exceed eighty hours of actual work in a pay period.

- b. Non-exempt employees shall be paid at their regular rate of pay when the actual hours worked is equal to or less than 40 hours in a workweek. Employees engaged in public safety activities shall be paid at their regular rate when the actual hours worked is equal to or less than 80 hours in a pay period.
- c. A non-exempt employee shall be paid for any accrued and authorized overtime, including accrued compensatory time, by the work unit in which the overtime was worked, upon transfer, change in funding source, or termination.

2. Compensatory Time Off

In lieu of cash payment, an employee may be eligible to earn compensatory time subject to the following:

- a. For non-exempt employees, compensatory time shall be calculated in the same manner as cash payment in E, above.
- b. Compensatory time off shall be arranged by the employee and the supervisor. Supervisors shall properly account for Compensatory time earned and taken by employees.
- c. For non-exempt employees, compensatory time off must be taken within 90 days of the time it was earned, otherwise programs are required to compensate employees in cash payment.
- d. An employee may not accrue more than 120 hours of compensatory time, unless the employee is engaged in essential public safety activities or emergency response activities. These employees may accrue up to 240 hours of compensatory time. Any overtime hours worked in excess of these limits must be compensated in cash payment until the number of accrued hours of compensatory time falls below the limit.

F. Reporting of Overtime

All authorized and earned overtime and compensatory time must be recorded on the official time sheet. Only hours reported on the time sheet will be accepted and approved for cash payment or compensatory time off.

IX. EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

A. The Navajo Nation offers several benefit programs for employees. Eligibility may be based on length of service, employment status or salary. Specific descriptions of the benefits are available from the following Programs: Tribal Retirement Office, Employee Benefits Office, Workers' Comp and Employee Assistance. Additional benefit programs may be added or others deleted as approved.

B. Paid Holidays

1. The following days shall be recognized as paid holidays:

New Year's Day	January 1
Martin Luther King Day	Third Monday in January
President's Day	Third Monday in February
Navajo Nation Police Officer Day	Second Friday in May
Memorial Day	Last Monday in May
Navajo Nation Memorial Day	June 1
Independence Day	July 4
Navajo Code Talker's Day	August 14
Labor Day	First Monday in September
Veteran's Day	November 11
Thanksgiving Day	Fourth Thursday in November
Navajo Nation Family Day	Friday following Thanksgiving Day
Christmas Day	December 25

Additional holidays include any day designated as a holiday by federal statute, Executive Order of the President of the United States, or action of the Navajo Nation Council, the President of the Navajo Nation, or the Speaker, Navajo Nation Council.

2. All employees except temporary employees are eligible for paid holidays.
3. Holidays falling on a Saturday will be observed on the preceding Friday. Holidays falling on a Sunday will be observed on the following Monday.
4. An eligible employee with an unexcused absence on normal work days prior to or after a designated paid holiday, will not be paid for the holiday.
5. If a holiday occurs when an eligible employee is on approved leave, the absence will not be charged against his/her accrued leave.
6. An eligible employee who is on a scheduled day off when a holiday is observed will be paid at his/her regular rate of pay.
7. An eligible employee required to work on a designated holiday who does not report to work and is not excused, will forfeit the holiday pay.
8. Any employee who is required to work on a holiday and does work shall be paid at twice his/her regular rate of pay. (See Section VII. H). Employees working on a holiday will not be given equivalent time off before or after the holiday.

C. Leaves of Absence

Employee benefits include leaves of absence. See Section X for discussion on the types of leave.

D. Staff Development and Training

Employees are encouraged to participate in job related training to enhance job performance, develop and strengthen skills, and to keep current on specific developments and trends. The Staff Development and Training Program is responsible for monitoring and administering training activities.

X. LEAVE ADMINISTRATION

A. General Leave Policies

1. Use of Leave

Employees will earn annual and sick leave, however, when and how these leave benefits are used is subject to supervisory approval. Employees should keep in mind that the use of leave is granted as a privilege rather than a right. It should also be clearly understood that leave is granted to employees at such times as they can be conveniently spared from work. Use of leave may be subject to verification and improper use of leave may be denied. Leave may be denied due to the requirements of the workload, except as provided herein.

2. Application for Leave

Except in emergency circumstances or as provided below, application for leave of any kind or duration must be initiated by the employee in writing and presented to the authorized supervisor for approval prior to taking leave. If an employee is incapacitated, the supervisor may place the employee on appropriate leave.

3. Leave Year

The leave year shall consist of 26 pay periods and shall begin with the first complete pay period in any given calendar year and end with the 26th pay period.

4. Years of Service for Leave Benefits

Years of service shall include all periods of continuous employment with the Navajo Nation Government. Years of service shall not include employment with entities, enterprises, or chapters of the Navajo Nation. In addition, service prior to a break in service will not be included unless the break in service was the result of a reduction in force and the employee was reinstated within six months of the lay off.

B. Paid Leave

1. Annual Leave

Annual leave is authorized absence for rest, recreation or other purposes when approved by the supervisor.

a. Eligibility

- 1) Regular status employees are eligible to accrue annual leave hours.
- 2) Temporary employees are not eligible.

- 3) Employees on any type of leave without pay are not eligible.
- 4) Political at-will employees are not eligible.

b. Limitations

- 1) Employees serving a new employee introductory period can accrue annual leave but cannot use accrued annual leave until after they have been converted to regular status.
- 2) Termination within the new employee period voids all accrued annual leave hours.

c. Accrual Rate

- 1) Eligible employees will accrue annual leave at the following rates:

	Nonexempt Employees	Exempt Employees
Yrs of Service	Per Pay Period	Per Pay Period
Less than 3 years	4 hours	6 hours
3 years to 12 years	6 hours	8 hours
More than 12 years	8 Hours	10 Hours

- 2) Eligible regular part-time and seasonal part-time employees accrue annual leave on a pro rata basis.

d. Extension of Sick Leave

Annual leave may be approved as an extension of sick leave upon exhaustion of accrued sick leave.

e. Carryover

At the end of each leave year, all hours in excess of 320 hours shall be forfeited. Forfeited hours shall not be paid.

f. Change of Employment Status

- 1) An employee transferred to a position in which annual leave does not accrue will be paid for all accrued annual leave hours earned in his/her prior position.
- 2) An employee who transfers to another regular status position shall have all accrued annual leave hours transferred.

g. Liquidation of Annual Leave

Upon separation from employment, an employee shall be paid for all accrued annual leave hours. Payment will be included in the final paycheck subject to deductions for any indebtedness owed to the Navajo Nation.

2. Sick Leave

Sick leave is authorized time off from work granted an eligible employee due to: his/her own illness, injury, or disability or that of a spouse, children, or parents. This includes but is not limited to incapacitating, contagious, or chronic illness, disability caused by pregnancy, childbirth or related medical circumstances, illness or injury that requires examination, treatment or visits to a licensed practitioner, medicine man or health-related counselor. Employees referred by EAP for treatment, counseling or to other resources may also be eligible for sick leave.

a. Eligibility

- 1) Regular status employees are eligible to accrue sick leave hours.
- 2) Temporary employees are not eligible.
- 3) Employees on any type of leave without pay are not eligible.
- 4) Political at-will employees are not eligible.

b. Limitations

- 1) Employees serving a new employee introductory period can accrue sick leave but cannot use accrued sick leave until after they have been converted to regular status.

- 2) Illness or other medical conditions which exhaust an employee's sick leave may require that annual leave and leave without pay be used.

c. Accrual Rate

Eligible employees will accrue sick leave from the date of employment at the following rates:

Employee Status	Accrual Rate Per Pay Period
Regular/Seasonal Full-Time	4 Hours
Regular/Seasonal Part-Time	2 Hours

d. Physician's Statement

An employee is required to submit written proof of illness or disability from a physician for absences of three or more consecutive work days. If an employee's sick leave record warrants, a statement may be required for less than three days.

e. Traditional Healing Ceremonies

An employee must request and obtain prior approval for the absence. The employee may be required to submit a written statement from the medicine man performing the ceremony if the employee's absence due to traditional healing ceremonies warrants verification or if the ceremony is three or more consecutive work days.

f. Carryover

Eligible employees may carry over an unlimited number of unused sick leave hours from leave year to leave year. However, no employee shall be paid for unused sick leave hours upon termination.

g. Change in Employment Status

- 1) An employee who transfers to a position in which sick leave does not accrue shall forfeit all sick leave hours.

- 2) An employee who transfers to another regular status position shall have all accrued sick leave hours transferred.

h. Reinstatement of Sick Leave

Sick leave hours shall only be restored when a former employee with reemployment preference is rehired within six months of separation from employment.

i. Forfeiture of Sick Leave

Termination within the new employee introductory period voids all accrued sick leave hours. Forfeited sick leave may not be restored.

3. Administrative Leave

Administrative leave is leave with pay and may be granted by an appropriate authority of the Navajo Nation in the following situations:

a. Early release

- 1) Early release of employees due to: extreme weather conditions, or any other reason determined by the President, Speaker or their designees to be appropriate. Advance notice of early release shall be in writing and signed by the President, Speaker or their designees.
- 2) Early release shall not apply to employees on leave, travel or whose tour of duty does not cover the period of the early release.

- b. Temporary closure of employee work sites or facilities due to environmental health hazards or other safety or health reasons. Administrative leave shall not be granted when affected employees can reasonably be assigned to alternative work sites.

c. Investigations

- 1) A Program Manager may place an employee on administrative leave with pay to investigate alleged misconduct sufficiently serious to bar an employee from the workplace to protect persons or Nation resources. Such leave may not exceed five consecutive working days unless extended under Subsection d.

- a. The supervisor shall give written notice of the administrative leave to the employee. The notice shall state the reasons for the administrative leave, including the specific misconduct the employee is alleged to have committed, and the number of days the employee will be on leave. Upon receipt of the written notice, the employee shall be required to leave the workplace immediately and surrender keys, computers, work cell phones and other government property. The employee shall provide a contact phone number and be available during the leave to provide information relevant to the investigation.
 - b. If the investigation is completed before the expiration of the administrative leave, the supervisor shall end the administrative leave and inform the employee he or she will return to work. If the administrative leave expires before the investigation is completed, the employee will return to work. The expiration of administrative leave does not prevent a supervisor from continuing the investigation and taking disciplinary action under Subsection c. after the employee returns to work.
 - c. After the investigation is completed, if a supervisor believes disciplinary action is necessary, he or she shall discipline the employee under Section XIII. and XV. of this Manual.
 - d. Extensions may be granted by the Department of Personnel Management by recommendation of the Program Manager, but total administrative leave for investigatory purposes shall not exceed 20 working days.
- 2) For investigations concerning alleged financial misconduct or misuse of government property, a Program Manager may place an employee on administrative leave with or without pay. Such leave may not exceed thirty (30) working days unless extended under Subsection (f).

- a. A supervisor may place an employee on unpaid administrative leave only with the written concurrence of the Department of Justice. As provided within one working day.
- b. The supervisor shall give written notice of the leave to the employee. The notice shall state the reasons for the administrative leave, including the specific misconduct the employee is alleged to have committed, and the number of days the employee will be on leave. Upon receipt of the written notice, the employee shall be required to leave the workplace immediately and surrender keys, computers, work cell phones, and other government property.
- c. If the investigation is completed before the expiration of the administrative leave, the supervisor shall end the administrative leave and inform the employee he or she will return to work. If the administrative leave expires before the investigation is completed, the employee will return to work. The expiration of administrative leave does not prevent a supervisor from continuing the investigation and taking disciplinary action under Subsection d. after the employee returned to work.
- d. When, after the investigation is completed, a supervisor believes disciplinary action is necessary, the action shall be taken in conformance with Sections XIII. and XV. of this Manual. If the disciplinary action is a suspension, the days of unpaid administrative leave shall be credited to the number of days of unpaid suspension. If the number of days of unpaid administrative leave exceeds the number of days of unpaid suspension, the employee shall receive back pay for the excess days of unpaid administrative leave.
- e. If, after the investigation is completed, the supervisor takes no disciplinary action, the employee shall receive back pay compensation for the number of days he or she was on unpaid administrative leave.
- f. Unpaid Administrative leave may be extended for an additional thirty (30) working days when approved by the Division Director of the employee's Division, and the Attorney General or Auditor General, and concurred by the Department of Personnel Management. Total administrative leave shall not exceed 60 working days.

d. Witness Summons

- 1) An employee summoned or subpoenaed by any party or tribunal, including the grievance hearing officer, to be a witness in an official capacity, shall not be required to take leave since the employee will be representing the Navajo Nation. However, the employee must immediately inform the supervisor of the proposed absence.
- 2) If an employee is summoned to be a witness as a private citizen, or as a witness for the aggrieved party in a grievance hearing, the employee will be authorized annual leave. If annual leave is exhausted, leave without pay will be used.

e. Jury Duty

Employees are required to notify their supervisor promptly upon receipt of a jury summons and subsequent notice to serve as a juror. Employees summoned for jury duty, including military jury duty, will receive their regular rate of pay for normal work hours, provided the employee submits evidence of the summons and selection notice. Fees received as compensation for jury duty shall be paid to the Navajo Nation except when an employee voluntarily requests annual leave for the period of absence. Employees will be allowed to retain any reimbursements for transportation, lodging, meals etc. paid by the respective court jurisdiction.

f. Time Off for Voting

- 1) Registered voters may receive authorization for up to two hours paid absence from work to vote in a Navajo Nation, local, state or federal election. The length of absence will be granted at the discretion of the immediate supervisor.
- 2) Employees required to vote at a poll remote from their workstations may request an extension of the two-hour limit. The extension, if granted, will be charged to the employee's annual leave. This extension includes travel time to the poll but may not exceed eight hours.

g. Professional Licensure and Certification

- 1) An employee may be authorized administrative leave to obtain appropriate job related professional licensure or certification or to satisfy continuing education requirements to retain such licensure or certification.
- 2) An employee will be given two opportunities to obtain licensure or certification. Thereafter, he/she will be required to take annual leave or leave without pay.
 - i. Any special conditions regarding the length of leave, payment of expenses, reimbursement, grades, employment status, service to the Navajo Nation, etc. will be arranged between the Program Manager and the employee.

h. COVID-19 Leave

The Navajo Nation recognizes that an employee may have a need to be absent from work due to health issues that arise from the COVID-19 pandemic. COVID-19 leave may be approved for employees who are in need of personal leave due to COVID-19 to care for themselves or a family member, or to be away from the work place as required by his or her employer. Such leave will not require an employee to utilize his or her accrued sick or annual leave. The maximum amount of leave allowed under this policy is 120 work hours. For any additional leave, the employee must request to use his or her accrued annual or sick leave, be approved for Leave Without Pay, or seek Family Medical Leave under Section X (D) of this Manual. This leave will remain available through the duration of any Declaration of Emergency by the Commission on Emergency Management and the Navajo Nation President concerning the COVID-19 pandemic. Such leave is available to employees required to be on duty during the pandemic, and not to employees already on Administrative Leave under Section X (B) (3) (b) of this Manual.

- 1) An employee may request COVID-19 leave under the following circumstances:
 - a. When a family member has tested positive for the virus and requires assistance from the employee,
 - b. When the employee has tested positive for the virus,

- c. When the employee is required by his or her supervisor to be away from the work place due to 1) exposure to an individual who has tested positive or is suspected to be positive for COVID-19, or 2) if the employee shows symptoms consistent with COVID-19,
- 2) All employees, regardless of length of service with the Navajo Nation, are eligible for leave that meet any of the COVID-19 circumstances listed in Subsection 1). Such approved leave will be paid.
- 3) A request for special COVID-19 leave must be made in writing, for a specified period of time and submitted to the employee's supervisor. The employee shall submit the request, or, if incapacitated due to illness, an authorized family member may do so.
- 4) If proper documentation, as required by Subsection 5) is submitted, the supervisor cannot deny the leave within the maximum 120 work hours. The supervisor may limit the duration of the leave to less than the 120 maximum, in consultation with the employee and the employee's medical provider and as consistent with Center for Disease Control COVID-19 Guidelines. If COVID-19 leave is granted, an employee may not return to work without a doctor's statement or official medical document showing a negative result for a COVID-19 test.
- 5) All leave requests shall be accompanied by appropriate documentation.
 - a. For categories a. and b. under Subsection 1), the employee must submit official medical documents from a medical provider showing a positive COVID-19 test for the employee or a family member, which may include a doctor's note or document from a hospital or other testing facility.
 - b. For category a. under Subsection 1), the employee must also submit a written document describing the assistance needed by the family member, and why that assistance cannot be provided by others.
 - c. For Category c. under Subsection 1), the employee must submit a written memorandum from his or her supervisor or program manager that requires the employee to be away from the work place and identifies the amount of time the employee must be away.

- 6) To verify the employee's eligibility for COVID-19 leave, it may become necessary to request information from the employee and/or his/her medical provider. The employee's supervisor can request additional medical information to confirm the employee's need to be absent, to show whether and how an absence relates to the infection, and to know that it is appropriate for the employee to return to work. When requesting COVID-19 leave, the employee must sign a release to allow the supervisor to make such requests to the employee's medical provider.

- 6) All requests for leave and all supporting documentation submitted by an employee must be kept strictly confidential, and information related to the reason for the leave will be restricted to other Navajo Nation employees with a need to know to process the leave, including the employee's supervisor, the Program Manager, and the Department of Personnel Management. Violation of this confidentiality requirement by those employees, or any other employee of the Navajo Nation, is a violation of the Navajo Privacy Act, 2 N.N.C. §§ 91 and 92, and can result in civil and criminal penalties. Such violation may also result in discipline of those employees by his or her supervisor under Offense Number 22 in the Table of Penalties of this Manual.

C. Unpaid Leave

1. Approved Leave Without Pay

Leave without pay not to exceed 15 working days may be granted by the supervisor. Requests for leave without pay exceeding 15 working days must be supported by a written recommendation of the supervisor and approved by the Division Director. Except for family and medical leave, annual or sick leave, if applicable, must be exhausted before entering approved leave without pay status. Consideration shall be given to the merits and circumstances together with the programmatic operations.

2. Unauthorized Absence

When an employee is absent without authorization, the employee will be charged with absence without approved leave and may be subject to disciplinary action. If the absence is later approved, the charge to absence without approved leave may be changed to the appropriate leave.

3. Disciplinary Actions

An employee placed on suspension is generally considered to be on leave without pay status; however, a supervisor may place an employee on a working paid suspension. Annual and sick leave do not have to be exhausted.

4. Educational Leave

Educational leave may be granted when an employee enrolls as a full-time student in an accredited educational institution.

- a. The purpose of educational leave is to enhance an employee's job performance and therefore must be job related. All requests shall be approved by the Program Manager.
- b. Educational leave shall be without pay unless the Program Manager and employee agree that annual leave may be used.
- c. Regular full-time employees are eligible for educational leave up to one semester (or equivalent) per academic year provided they have three years of continuous employment with the Navajo Nation Government.
- d. An employee on approved educational leave shall maintain regular full-time status.
- e. Upon completion of educational leave, an employee shall return to his/her position.

D. Family and Medical Leave

Family and medical leave of absence is approved unpaid leave available to eligible employees for up to six months per year under particular circumstances that are critical to the life of a family.

1. Family and medical leave may be taken only in the following situations:
 - a. upon the birth of the employee's child;
 - b. upon the placement of a child with the employee for adoption or foster care;

- c. when the employee is needed to care for his/her child, spouse, or parent who has a serious health condition; or
- d. when the employee is unable to perform the functions of his/her position because of a serious health condition.

2. Limitations

- a. The first three months of leave are nondiscretionary; if the leave is requested consistent with these policies, the supervisor must approve the leave.
- b. The second three month period is discretionary. The supervisor has the authority to approve/disapprove the leave. Reason(s) for the additional leave requested must meet the criteria herein and be based on 1 a-d above.

3. Eligibility

Regular status employees who have been employed for one year are eligible for family and medical leave.

4. Basic Regulations and Conditions

- a. Employees are required to submit medical certification to support a claim for leave for an employee's own serious health condition or to care for a seriously ill child, spouse, or parent.
- b. Spouses who are both employed by the Navajo Nation may take a total of six months of leave (rather than six months each) for the birth or adoption of a child or the care of a sick parent, subject to the limitations in D.2 above.
- c. When the need for leave is foreseeable, such as the birth or adoption of a child, or planned medical treatment, the employee must provide notice as far in advance as practicable, and make efforts to schedule leave so as not to disrupt program operations.
- d. In cases of illness, the employee will be required to report periodically to the immediate supervisor on his/her leave status and intention to return to work. A medical certification is required to resume work.
- e. Upon return from family and medical leave, an employee shall return to the same position.
- f. During the employee's absence, his/her position may be filled on a temporary basis.

- g. An employee's failure to return to work after the duration of approved family and medical leave and any other authorized leave, shall be deemed a resignation.
- h. Department of Personnel Management is responsible for developing and issuing procedures on family and medical leave.

5. Status of Employee Benefits During Leave of Absence

- a. Any employee who is granted an approved leave of absence under this policy shall provide for the retention of group insurance coverage by arranging to pay his/her premium contributions during the period of unpaid absence.
- b. An employee will not lose service credit with the Navajo Nation as a result of the family and medical leave, but he/she will not accrue annual or sick leave and is not eligible for paid holidays.

E. Furlough

Furlough is the placement of a Seasonal employee into temporary non-duty non-pay (leave without pay) status due to lack of work, closure of facilities for a specific period or time, or closure due to circumstances beyond the control of the program.

- 1. Seasonal employees may be eligible for furlough status upon verification of continued funding for the next season or intermittent employment.
- 2. Employees will be provided written notice from the Program Manager of the furlough 15 calendar days prior to the beginning of the furlough period. The notice will include the effective date of the furlough, the date to return to duty and pay status.
- 3. The Program Manager shall also provide written notification to each employee on furlough status of the date to return to duty 15 calendar days prior to the effective date of return.
- 4. Each employee shall be provided a record of his/her accrued annual and sick leave hours before going on furlough status. This accrued leave will be maintained until the employee returns to active duty and pay status or is separated from employment.
- 5. To retain his/her regular status, a Seasonal employee on furlough may only obtain temporary employment with the Navajo Nation during the furlough period. If the employee does not wish to return to the program placing him/her on furlough, a resignation must be submitted and processed to clear the employee to obtain other employment.

6. Employees provided written notification to return to work and who fail to report by the established return to duty and pay status date, may be subject to termination.
7. Insurance premiums must be paid for the furlough period. Upon notification of furlough, the program and affected employees can make arrangements for payment of premiums with the Employee Benefits Office.
8. These policies do not apply to other categories of employees.
9. The period of furlough cannot exceed six months from the date of furlough.

F. Donation of Annual and/or Sick Leave Hours

1. A Navajo Nation employee with accrued annual and/or sick leave hours may donate leave hours to assist a Navajo Nation employee who has exhausted his or her own annual and sick leave hours due to an on-going medical hardship.
2. In order to donate leave hours, an employee must submit a written request to his or her Program Manager. Such request must be approved in writing by his or her Program Manager, with notice to the Department of Personnel Management.
3. Any disapproval of the request must be in writing with stated reasons for the disapproval. Any disapproved request can be appealed within ten (10) working days from notice, to the Department of Personnel Management (DPM) and the Department may approve, or affirm the disapproval, of the request. The approval of the disapproval by the DPM shall be in writing with stated reasons.
4. A Navajo Nation employee who exhausted his or her own annual and sick leave hours due to an on-going medical hardship is eligible to receive donated leave hours.
5. In order to receive donated leave hours, such eligible employee must submit a written request for donated leave hours and a written statement from a licensed physician demonstrating the employee's on-going medical hardship to their Program Manager.

6. Such written request if approved, must be approved in writing by the Program Manager with notice to the DPM.
7. Any disapproval must also be in writing with stated reasons for the disapproval. Any disapproval can be appealed within ten (10) working days to the DPM, and the DPM may approve, or affirm the disapproval, of the request. The approval or disapproval by DPM shall be in writing with stated reasons.

XI. EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL

A. Policy

The policy of the Navajo Nation is to encourage and promote optimal employee performance using program management objectives. Every employee must receive a performance appraisal at least once a year. All employee performance appraisals shall be accepted and acted upon by the Department of Personnel Management as received by each submitting unit and shall not be unduly delayed pending receipt of the entire Division's forms.

B. Purpose

The purpose of the Employee Appraisal is to evaluate past job performance and set standards for future performance.

C. Duties and Responsibilities

1. Supervisors shall be responsible for evaluating past performance pursuant to procedures issued by Department of Personnel Management.
2. At the beginning of each review period, supervisors will be responsible for establishing specific objectives and performance standards consistent with program objectives and current job description.
3. Department of Personnel Management shall issue procedures regarding performance appraisals and establish review periods and timelines for submission of appraisals.
4. Department of Personnel Management shall monitor the completion of employee performance appraisals.

5. Supervisors are responsible for ensuring that performance appraisals are submitted for all employees by the established deadline date. Failure to submit appraisals by established deadline date will result in disapproval of step increase and/or disciplinary action.

D. Unsatisfactory Performance

An employee whose job performance is unsatisfactory is subject to disciplinary action as set forth in the Table of Penalties.

E. Merit Pay

Performance evaluations serve as the basis for awarding merit pay. Merit pay provisions are set forth at Section VII.I.1-2 herein. The Department of Personnel Management will issue procedures.

XII. CHANGES IN ASSIGNMENT

A. Policy

The Navajo Nation may, at its discretion, initiate or approve changes in assignment of employees from one position to another or from one worksite to another. Pursuant to Section IV.K, employees applying for or being considered for a change in assignment that result in movement from a non-sensitive position to a sensitive position shall be subject to the required background check and suitability assessment.

B. Applicability

These policies apply to all regular status employees.

C. Transfers

All transfer decisions will be made in accordance with applicable laws and Navajo Nation policies, procedures, rules and regulations. To the extent possible, Program Managers will make transfers that are voluntary.

1. Intra-departmental Transfer

- a. A Program Manager, upon submittal of a written request and approval by the Department of Personnel Management, may transfer a regular status employee to a position in the same pay grade.
- b. A Program Manager, upon written request by a regular status employee and approval by the Department of Personnel Management, may transfer the employee to a position in the same pay grade.

2. Interdepartmental Transfer

A regular status employee may transfer to a position in the same pay grade in another department upon written request by the employee and approval of the current Program Manager and the gaining Program Manager as well as the Department of Personnel Management.

3. Qualifications

An employee shall possess the knowledge, skills and abilities required for the position as identified in the class specification for the position to which transferred.

4. Transfers are not final until approved by the Department of Personnel Management.

5. An employee shall not be transferred during an introductory period.

6. Transfer of Function

In the event that, by legislative action or otherwise, part or all of the functions of a program are transferred to another division or department the affected employees of the transferring program shall be accepted as transfers by the receiving division at the same pay grade.

D. Promotions

1. Job vacancies may be filled by promotion when practicable and in the best interest of the Navajo Nation.

2. It is the employee's responsibility to pursue promotion by:

a. attaining the necessary skills, training, education and professional certification; and

b. submitting a letter of interest to the supervisor and an updated application for employment and resume to the Department of Personnel Management.

3. The supervisor is responsible for submitting a written justification for promotion to the Department of Personnel Management.

4. The Department of Personnel Management jointly with the Executive Director of the Division of Human Resources upon determining that the employee meets the requirements of the position, will approve the promotion and the salary.

5. Promotions do not become effective until final approval is obtained.

E. Demotions

1. Involuntary - An employee may be demoted for cause or as a result of disciplinary action based on work performance pursuant to Section XIII.B herein. Notwithstanding Section XIV.A involuntary demotions are grievable actions.
2. Voluntary Grade Decrease – An employee may request a change in assignment to a position with a lower pay grade. The employee shall possess the knowledge skills, and abilities required of the new position. An employee is not eligible to grieve or appeal an approved voluntary demotion.
3. Demotions are permanent personnel actions unless stated otherwise.

F. Acting Status Assignment

An acting status assignment usually involves assigning a regular status employee to a supervisory position during the extended absence of an incumbent or a position vacancy. An acting status assignment shall not be less than 30 calendar days and shall not exceed 180 calendar days. Acting status assignments must have the prior approval of Department of Personnel Management.

1. An acting status assignment must be voluntary. The employee must meet the requirements of the position to which he/she is being assigned.
2. The request for acting status assignment must be in writing and submitted to the Department of Personnel Management for approval. The request shall include the following:
 - a. the nature, time period and expected results of the assignment;
 - b. assigned duties and responsibilities;
 - c. reporting relationships, signatures of the appropriate supervisors and the employee;
 - d. the appropriate salary adjustment for the period of assignment; and

- e. an updated application and resume of the employee being considered for the acting status assignment.
3. The Department of Personnel Management jointly with the Executive Director of the Division of Human Resources upon determining that the employee meets the requirements of the position, will approve the assignment and the effective date.
4. An employee who completes an acting status assignment will return to his/her previous position and resume regular duties at the previous grade/step.
5. Additional compensation for acting status assignments is covered under Section VII. G.7 herein.

G. Special Assignments

A regular status employee may be assigned to a special detail for not less than 30 days and not to exceed 180 calendar days, when it's determined to be in the best interest of the Navajo Nation. The Department of Personnel Management jointly with the Executive Director of the Division of Human Resources on a case-by-case basis will approve special assignments.

1. A written request must be submitted to the Department of Personnel Management and shall include:
 - a. justification for the special assignment, the time period, and expected results of the assignment;
 - b. the assigned duties and responsibilities of the employee during the special assignment;
 - c. reporting relationships and signatures of the appropriate supervisor(s) and the employee.
2. An employee on special assignment will not receive additional compensation.
3. Upon completion of a special assignment, an employee will resume his/her regular duties.

H. Change in Worksite

1. A change in worksite is strictly limited to moving an employee from one location to another within the same program. A change in account number may be necessary but there shall be no changes to the employment status, title or salary.

2. A change in worksite may be voluntary or initiated by the supervisor to ensure effective and efficient operations.
3. A change in worksite shall not be used for disciplinary reasons.
4. A change in worksite may be temporary or permanent.
5. A request for change in worksite of an employee must be submitted to the Human Resources Director outlining the following:
 - a. the reason(s) for the change in worksite, the time period and expected results of the assignment; and
 - b. reporting relationships; and
 - c. signatures of the appropriate supervisors and the employee.

XIII. DISCIPLINE OF EMPLOYEES

A. Policy

The policy of the Navajo Nation is to establish and maintain standards of employee conduct and supervisory practices which will support and promote effective program operations. Such practices include the administration of consistent and constructive employee discipline.

B. Guide for Disciplinary Action

Supervisors at all levels are expected to assume responsibility for reporting and initiating proper action regarding employee misconduct, unsatisfactory work performance, or violation of personnel policies or regulations.

1. Employees, including supervisors, whose job performance or conduct is unsatisfactory, or who violate the law, Nation policies, practices, rules, or regulations are subject to disciplinary action consistent with the Table of Penalties.
2. Supervisors should refer to the Table of Penalties or the Department of Personnel Management for assistance in initiating disciplinary action.

C. Authority to Administer Disciplinary Action

1. Program Managers (see definition section) shall have the authority and responsibility to administer appropriate disciplinary action for violations of law, Nation policies, practices, rules and regulations.

2. When supervisors fail to administer personnel policies or initiate disciplinary action, the Human Resources Director shall notify the supervisor's superior. The Human Resources Director may also initiate appropriate disciplinary action against the supervisor and/or his/her superior.

D. Documentation

1. All disciplinary actions shall be documented in writing by the supervisor.
2. Documentation of disciplinary actions will become part of the employee's personnel record subject to G.2 below. Supervisors administering disciplinary action shall provide copies of such actions to the Department of Personnel Management.

E. Notice

Notice of disciplinary actions should be hand delivered whenever practicable or sent by certified mail. Notice by certified mail shall be effective upon delivery of notice by the U.S. Postal Service.

F. Contents of Disciplinary Notice

The disciplinary notice shall be in writing, directed to the employee and shall contain:

1. an appropriate identification of the party, including position title and department; and
2. the date(s) on which the violation(s) occurred, or where such acts are of a continuing nature and are the basis for the disciplinary action, the period of time when the acts occurred; and
3. a reference to the Table of Penalties regarding the offense(s) committed and the penalty imposed; and
4. a clear and concise statement of the facts constituting the alleged violation(s); and
5. an explanation of the employee's right to appeal the disciplinary action pursuant to Section XIV Employee Grievance; and
6. if hand delivered, the employee's acknowledgment of receipt of the notice, or if employee refuses to acknowledge, the notation that employee refused to sign and the date.

G. Table of Penalties

Those responsible for the administration of discipline must be firm, impersonal, and free from prejudice. In the interest of administering justice as uniformly as possible in accordance with the policies stated, a Table of Penalties is incorporated herein.

1. In cases of less serious performance and/or conduct issues, supervisors are encouraged to discuss such deficiencies with their employees before initiating any formal disciplinary action under the Table of Penalties.
2. A reprimand may also be appropriate for less serious offenses prior to taking formal action. Such action may not be grieved under this section of the Manual, nor will it be included in the employee's personnel file maintained by the Department of Personnel Management. However, a written reprimand may be maintained by the department or program issuing the notice.
3. Supervisors shall be specific in describing the time period constituting an employee's suspension, and shall include both the dates and hours when the suspension begins and ends. Holidays shall be counted in computing the suspension period.
4. Suspensions imposed under the Table of Penalties are generally without pay, and require the employee to remain away from the workplace during the period of suspension. At the discretion of the supervisor, an employee may be placed on a working paid suspension. During the period of suspension, the employee shall continue to carry out his/her regular duties at the workplace. A paid suspension is grievable.
5. In addition to the penalties listed, employees are reminded that depending upon the offense(s) committed, they may be subject to prosecution under Navajo Nation or other applicable laws and/or be deemed ineligible for future employment with the Navajo Nation.
6. Employees who violate Navajo Nation or other applicable laws may also be subject to penalties provided for in those laws. Such violations may or may not lead to disciplinary action by the supervisor.
7. For those employees paid by a contract or grant, where the funding source requires greater disciplinary measures than those outlined in the Table of Penalties, or penalties other than those listed, such disciplinary action may be imposed consistent with the funding source requirement.

8. Where one set of circumstances warranting disciplinary action violates more than one offense listed in the Table of Penalties, supervisors must allocate the total penalty among each separate offense charged.

For example, if an employee is charged with three separate offenses, and the penalty for all three offenses totals ten working days suspension, the supervisor must allocate the ten days among all three offenses.

9. Employees shall not be penalized for multiple offenses arising from the same conduct or event.

XIV. EMPLOYEE GRIEVANCE

A. Policy

An employee who feels aggrieved as a result of an application of disciplinary action such as discharge, suspension, loss of pay or benefits, or an employee or an applicant for an employment position who alleges a violation of the Navajo Preference in Employment Act has a right to utilize the procedures provided in this Section.

B. Eligibility

All employees are eligible to file a grievance concerning the application of disciplinary action such as discharge, suspension, loss of pay or benefits, and any employee or applicant for an employment position are eligible to file a grievance alleging a violation of the Navajo Preference in Employment Act. At-will employees are not eligible.

C. Grievance Process

1. Step One:

An employee or an applicant for an employment position must file a written grievance with the supervisor who initiated the action within twenty working days of the disciplinary action or alleged violation of the Navajo Preference in Employment Act, with a copy to the Department of Personnel Management. The supervisor must attempt to resolve the problem with the employee or applicant within ten working days after receipt of the grievance.

2. Step Two:

If the supervisor fails to address the grievance or if the employee or applicant disagrees with the decision, the employee or applicant must file a written appeal with the Human Resources Director within ten working days of the completion of Step One above. The appeal shall include:

- a. the name and position of the Aggrieved Party,
- b. the name and position of the supervisor initiating the action,
- c. a clear and concise statement of the underlying facts, including the dates and alleged events or conditions which form the basis of the appeal, and the specific harm allegedly sustained by the Aggrieved Party as a result of the violation,
- d. the relief sought by the Aggrieved Party.

3. Step Three:

Within ten working days of receipt of the appeal, the Department of Personnel Management will convene an Administrative Meeting with the employee or applicant and the supervisor to attempt settlement. If the Department of Personnel Management does not convene the meeting or if the parties do not settle the grievance within the ten working days, then the grievance proceeds to Step Four.

4. Step Four:

If the employee or applicant disagrees with the outcome of the Administrative Meeting, or if no Administrative Meeting was convened, the employee or applicant must file a written grievance appeal with the Department of Personnel Management within fifteen working days of the conclusion of Step Three for immediate transmittal to the Hearing Officer. A filing fee of $25.00 must accompany this appeal. At this point, and not earlier, both parties may be represented by legal counsel.

5. Step Five:

A Navajo Nation Hearing Officer will conduct the grievance hearing. The hearing will be held within 30 working days of the date of filing, or as soon thereafter as agreeable to the parties. The Hearing Officer will render a written decision within twenty working days of the hearing.

6. The decision of the Hearing Officer is the final administrative decision.

D. Refund of Filing Fee

If the grievance is withdrawn or resolved prior to commencement of the grievance hearing, the filing fee shall be refunded.

E. Grounds for Dismissal of Grievance

Abandonment of a case or noncompliance with required grievance deadlines by the Aggrieved Party will be grounds for dismissal of the grievance. The Department of Personnel Management will make such determination and inform all parties. Dismissal of a grievance may be appealed to the Hearing Officer under Step Four.

F. Withdrawal of Grievance

At any point in the grievance process, an employee may withdraw the grievance.

G. Status of Position Pending Grievance Outcome

Any changes regarding a position affected by a grievance will be placed on hold by the Department of Personnel Management until such time the grievance is resolved or a final decision is rendered.

H. Status of Employee Pending Grievance Outcome

1. Notwithstanding the foregoing subsection G, disciplinary actions shall be effective immediately upon notice to the employee.
2. Notwithstanding an employee's involvement in a current grievance, subsequent violation(s) of the personnel policies by the employee may result in separate disciplinary action(s).
3. An employee that has filed a grievance shall be allowed reasonable use of available annual leave hours for the purpose of participating in the grievance process.

I. Grievance Hearing Officer

A Hearing Officer of the Office of Hearings and Appeals shall hear grievances under this Section. The Office of Hearings and Appeals' rules for personnel grievances shall govern the grievance hearing. The Hearing Officer shall have the authority to uphold or reverse the disciplinary action of the supervisor, award back pay to the grievant, and when required, order that the employee's record be expunged, and may provide any other relief available to the grievant under the Navajo Preference in Employment Act. The Hearing Officer may also consider the appropriateness of the penalty imposed and if circumstances warrant, reduce the penalty. However, in no case shall the Hearing Officer increase the penalty imposed by the supervisor.

XV. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

A. Responsibility

The Human Resources Director is responsible for establishing detailed procedures to address issues arising under this section.

B. Resignation

1. An employee may voluntarily terminate employment with the Navajo Nation by submitting a letter of resignation.
2. The employee resigning shall give at least ten working days notice, unless the supervisor consents to the employee leaving sooner.
3. An employee who submits a written resignation may, with the supervisor's approval, withdraw the resignation and be restored to the vacated position provided the written request for withdrawal submitted to the supervisor prior to the effective date of the resignation.

C. Discharge of Employees

1. A supervisor shall notify the employee, in writing, of the discharge and the specific reasons for the discharge. The notice shall include all requirements of Section XIII.F Contents of Disciplinary Notice.
2. These policies do not apply to At-will employees.

D. Subsequent Disqualification

If an employee, who was qualified for his/her position, subsequently becomes disqualified for the position due to a loss of license, certification, or reclassification of the position due to a reorganization of the program or material changes in duties, or for any other reason, the employee shall be given a reasonable period to re-qualify. The employee shall also be given notice that if he/she does not re-qualify during the re-qualification period, the employee will be terminated.

E. Layoff

An employee who is to be laid off shall be given 15-calendar days written notice. Notice of layoff may be less than the 15-calendar day requirement if stoppage of work results from circumstances beyond the control of the Navajo Nation, e.g. program funding is terminated, positions are not refunded, or funds are not available to continue program operations. In all cases, however, the employee must be given as much notice as possible.

Subject to applicable law, a regular status employee who is laid off shall be entitled to re-employment preference. These policies do not apply to temporary employees or At-will employees.

1. Organizational restructuring.
2. A supervisor may lay off a regular status employee whenever it becomes necessary due to lack of work or funds or elimination of position.
3. Whenever layoffs are necessary, the supervisor shall immediately notify the Human Resources Director of the proposed layoffs and provide the Human Resources Director with a list of affected employees.
4. No regular status employee shall be laid off while there are temporary, seasonal, or new employees employed in the same, equal, or lower level positions for which the regular status employee is qualified.
5. In determining the order of layoff of regular status employees, the supervisor shall consider such factors as seniority, performance appraisals, qualifications, work record, and conduct and whether employee is a veteran as set forth in Section III.C. The supervisor shall, if possible, retain the veteran.
6. If an employee's position is eliminated while he/she is on family medical leave, the employee shall be placed on layoff status immediately.
7. Physical Change and Incapacity

An employee may be laid off when, due to physical ailment or injury, the employee is no longer capable of performing the duties of the position. Before lay off,

- a. the employee must have seen a medical practitioner who has found the employee to be partially or totally disabled, or to be otherwise mentally or physically limited in work performance.
- b. The supervisor must determine that even with reasonable accommodation(s) for the employee's physical condition, the employee is incapable of performing the duties required of the position.
- c. If a supervisor believes that an employee is physically or mentally incapacitated but will not seek medical attention, the supervisor may require the employee to see a medical practitioner for an evaluation at the expense of the Navajo Nation.
- d. An employee laid off under this section must receive written notice explaining the reason for layoff and is entitled to consideration for a transfer and re-employment preference consistent with the policies herein.

F. Termination of Volunteers or Temporary Employees

1. A supervisor may terminate a volunteer or temporary employee at any time. The termination must be in writing and include an explanation for the termination, consistent with Navajo law.
2. A volunteer who is terminated is not entitled to re-employment, layoff, or grievance rights.
3. A temporary employee who is terminated is not entitled to re-employment or layoff rights.
4. A volunteer or temporary employee may resign without prior notice. The resignation must be in writing.

G. Termination of New Employees

1. A supervisor may terminate a new employee for just cause at any time during the introductory period. The termination must be in writing and include an explanation for the termination, consistent with Navajo law.
2. A new employee who is terminated is not entitled to re-employment or layoff rights.
3. A new employee may resign without prior notice. The resignation must be in writing.

H. Retirement

An employee who leaves Navajo Nation employment in accordance with the Navajo Nation Retirement Plan is considered to have retired.

I. Death

1. Unless leave without pay was previously approved, an employee shall be compensated through the date of death.
2. The effective date of the separation shall be the date of death.
3. The supervisor shall take reasonable steps to assure that arrangements are made to provide payment to the employee's estate of any salary, overtime, or accrued annual leave payments due.

J. Final Pay

1. Upon receipt of all required documents, a final paycheck shall be issued to the terminated employee. The final check will include payment for hours worked, accrued annual leave, and any overtime as of the termination date.
2. All or part of the final pay check and/or annual leave payment may be withheld to satisfy any indebtedness to the Navajo Nation.

XVI. CONDUCT OF EMPLOYEES AND POLITICAL-AT-WILL APPOINTEES

A. Business Ethics and Conduct

Employees are expected to comply with all applicable laws and policies of the Navajo Nation with respect to their conduct. In general, the use of good judgment will guide employees with respect to lines of acceptable conduct. If a situation arises where it is difficult to determine the proper course of action, the matter should be discussed with the appropriate supervisor and, if necessary, with the Office of Ethics and Rules for advice and consultation.

Each employee of the Navajo Nation shall, among other things:

1. Uphold, with integrity, the trust and confidence placed in the employee pursuant to his/her employment.
2. Comply with and respond to the directions and instructions of the supervisor.
3. Show courtesy, respect, cooperativeness, diligence and tact in dealings with supervisors, fellow workers, elected officials and the general public at all times.
4. Provide full, efficient, and industrious service to promote the goals and objectives of the Nation's programs.
5. Maintain confidential information acquired in the performance of his/her duties and refrain from disclosing any portion thereof, except in the manner and to the extent authorized.
6. Refrain from using his/her official position to influence transactions involving purchases, contracts, leases, or other business dealings which advance personal interests or those of his/her friends or relatives. The existence of any actual or potential conflict of interest must be disclosed to the appropriate supervisor so that safeguards can be established to protect all parties.

B. Limitations on Employee Activities

1. While employed, an employee's private life is his/her own; however, an employee's activities cannot disrupt the work or the workplace. Each is expected to comply with all applicable laws.
2. If an employee is indebted directly to the Navajo Nation, he/she will be required to make payment (including payroll deductions) subject to the specific terms of the indebtedness and/or the Navajo Business and Procurement Act.
3. Employees shall be held accountable for loss of Navajo Nation funds or property for which they are responsible where the loss is due to negligence or carelessness. Employees with custodial responsibilities for Navajo Nation property will safeguard assigned property.
4. Solicitation or receipt of gifts, favors, and/or gratuities is prohibited when such gifts constitute a conflict of interest or is in violation of the Ethics in Government Law.
5. Correspondence, papers, drawings, sketches, documentation, computer programs, instructions, procedures, forms and all such items produced by an employee in the course of his/her work are considered property of the Navajo Nation. Unauthorized removal, reproduction, and/or disclosure are strictly prohibited.
6. While employees may be authorized from time to time to speak on behalf of the Nation, no employee may declare, as policy, any statement that is contrary to the policies of the Navajo Nation.
7. Tribal vehicles are for official use only and employees are required to use them within the scope of their employment. Any accident involving a tribal vehicle must be reported by the employee involved in the incident as required by the Motor Vehicle Operator's Handbook.
8. Use of the Internet in any way which would violate policies and/or procedures established by the Division of General Services or other appropriate authority is prohibited.

C. Employees Pursuing Public Office

1. An employee pursuing any public office may, upon approval of the Program Manager, be granted a leave of absence not to exceed 60 calendar days.

2. Annual leave will be used until exhausted, then leave without pay will be used. However, funding source restrictions may require that an employee take only leave without pay.
3. Employees are prohibited from campaigning during work hours. Supervisors shall monitor and enforce this policy.
4. Employees elected to the Navajo Nation Council or the office of the President or Vice President of the Navajo Nation must resign from Navajo Nation employment before taking the oath of office.

D. Employees Appointed or Elected to Public Office

1. Employees who are elected to any public office other than those listed in C.4 above may be allowed to retain Navajo Nation employment. If the public office is a full-time position or involves a salary, the employee must obtain permission from his/her immediate supervisor and the Human Resources Director to retain Navajo Nation employment. The request must be submitted in accordance with the policy on Second or Outside Employment.
2. If the employee's duties as a public servant interfere with his/her work performance or responsibilities, or otherwise create a conflict of interest in the workplace, the supervisor may initiate appropriate disciplinary action and/or refer the matter to the Ethics and Rules Office. Public officials shall not perform public servant responsibilities while on their regular tour of duty as a Navajo Nation employee.
 - a. Employees retaining tribal employment are expected to abide by all applicable policies including, but not limited to, these personnel policies, travel policies, and standards of conduct.
 - b. Cases referred to the Office of Ethics and Rules - Decisions issued by the Ethics and Rules Committee must be complied with by all parties.
3. An employee who has been appointed or elected to serve on a board, commission, or committee which pays a stipend, or who has been elected to a public office, shall be required to take annual leave to attend to appointed or elected duties. The Program Manager will grant these leave requests whenever possible. If the employee has exhausted annual leave, then leave without pay will be used.

E. Drugs and Alcohol in the Workplace and While on Official Travel

1. The use of intoxicants during working hours or the lunch period is prohibited. Further, employees and political-at-will appointees while on official travel on behalf of the Navajo Nation, shall not consume or possess alcohol. This prohibition on the consumption of alcohol during travel shall apply to the entire duration of a trip.
2. An employee unable to perform job duties as a result of alcohol or illegal drug intoxication will be excused from the worksite and charged leave without pay. In addition, the employee is subject to disciplinary action consistent with the Table of Penalties, offense #40.
3. Employees and political-at-will appointees are prohibited from selling, purchasing, transferring, possessing, or using alcohol in the workplace, or while in an official travel status. Commuting to and from an employee's workplace shall not constitute official travel.
4. Employees and political-at-will appointees are prohibited from unlawfully manufacturing, selling, purchasing, transferring, possessing, or using controlled substances in the workplace.
5. Any employee and political-at-will appointees violating the above policies will be disciplined, up to and including termination for the first offense.
6. Any employee and political-at-will appointees convicted of violating a criminal drug or alcohol statute in the workplace must inform the supervisor and the Department of Personnel Management of such conviction, including pleas of guilty or no contest, within five working days of the conviction. Failure to do so will result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination for the first offense.
7. An employee and political-at-will appointees convicted of violating a criminal drug or alcohol statute in the workplace may participate in a rehabilitation or treatment program. If such a program is made as a condition of employment, the employee must satisfactorily participate in and complete the program.
8. All employees and political-at-will appointees are required to acknowledge that they have been informed of the above policy and agree to it in all respects. Acknowledgment and agreement are required as a condition of continued employment. Acknowledgment will be in writing and made a part of the employee's personnel file.

9. Employees and political-at-will appointees may be subject to drug and alcohol testing consistent with Navajo law.

F. Sexual Harassment

1. It is the policy of the Navajo Nation to protect all employees, male or female, against unwelcome and unsolicited behavior of a sexual nature. Such behavior is unacceptable in the workplace and other work-related settings such as business trips and business-related social events.

2. Definition

Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome or unwanted conduct of a sexual nature, whether verbal or physical, when:

- a. submission to or rejection of this conduct by an individual is used as a factor in decisions affecting hiring, evaluation, promotion, or other aspects of employment;
- b. this conduct substantially interferes with an individual's employment, performance on the job, or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.
- c. Examples of sexual harassment may include, but are not limited to:
 - 1) nonverbal actions; leering; gesturing of a sexual nature;
 - 2) unwanted sexual advances;
 - 3) demands for sexual favors in exchange for favorable treatment or continued employment;
 - 4) repeated sexual jokes, flirtations, advances, or propositions;
 - 5) verbal abuse of a sexual nature;
 - 6) verbal commentary about an individual's body;
 - 7) touching, rubbing, pinching, whistling, assaulting, suggestive insulting, coerced sexual acts, or rape;
 - 8) environmental harassment; display in the workplace of sexually suggestive objects or pictures.

3. Reporting a Complaint

Sexual harassment complaints should be addressed to the immediate supervisor or at the departmental level. Reports of sexual harassment must be in writing.

4. Retaliation

The Navajo Nation will not in any way retaliate against an individual or witness who makes a report of sexual harassment, nor will it permit any employee to do so. A person found to have retaliated against another individual for reporting sexual harassment shall be subject to disciplinary action provided for sexual harassment offenders.

5. Investigation

Any allegation of sexual harassment brought to the attention of the Navajo Nation will be investigated in a manner that protects the privacy of all persons involved and such privacy will be maintained throughout the investigatory process to the extent practical and appropriate.

- a. Individuals found to have engaged in misconduct constituting sexual harassment will be disciplined, up to and including discharge from employment.
- b. If an investigation results in a finding that an employee has falsely accused another of sexual harassment knowingly or in a malicious manner, the complainant will be subject to appropriate sanctions, including the possibility of termination.

6. Further information concerning this policy is contained in the procedures governing complaints on sexual harassment.

G. Workplace Violence Prevention

The policy of the Navajo Nation is to prevent workplace violence and to maintain a safe work environment.

1. Conduct that threatens, intimidates or coerces another employee, a client, or a member of the public, will not be tolerated.
2. Employees are to refrain from fighting or other conduct that may be dangerous to others.
3. Unauthorized firearms and weapons are prohibited on the premises of any Navajo Nation property or site where Navajo Nation business is conducted.
4. All threats of, or actual violence should be reported to the immediate supervisor. All suspicious individuals or activities should also be reported as soon as possible.
5. The Division Director shall document and be responsible for ensuring the prompt and thorough investigation of reports concerning threats of, or actual violence and of suspicious individuals or activities.

6. In order to maintain workplace safety and to maintain the integrity of the investigation, employees may be placed on leave consistent with the provisions of Section X.B.3, Administrative Leave.
7. Anyone determined to be responsible for threats of, or actual violence or other conduct that is a violation of these guidelines will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.
8. Employees are encouraged to bring their disputes or differences with other employees to the attention of their supervisors before the situation escalates into potential violence.

H. Unlawful Acts

1. Any unlawful act committed by an employee of the Navajo Nation while on or off the job or Navajo Nation premises, can affect an employee's status.
2. Notwithstanding any criminal prosecution initiated in a court of law, an employee may be disciplined, up to and including removal, if the conduct constitutes a violation of the Personnel Policies Manual.
3. An employee convicted of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or a felony cannot be reemployed by the Navajo Nation for a period of at least three years. The number of years may be determined by other standards if the employee's position is funded pursuant to a grant or contract.

XVII. OFFICE AND WORKSTATION REGULATIONS

- A. It is the policy of the Navajo Nation to establish and maintain a safe working environment for all employees. Therefore, an employee's workstation or any other site where Navajo Nation business is conducted is declared to be a drug, alcohol, tobacco, and smoke-free environment.

B. Safety

Supervisors and employees have a responsibility to maintain a safe work environment by preventing conditions leading to injuries, accidents, and losses. This includes but is not limited to the posting of emergency evacuation plans at designated areas.

C. Workstation

1. Supervisors are responsible for establishing standards for:
 - a. food and drinks at workstations;
 - b. radios, tape players, and other devices; and
 - c. appearance of the work area.
2. Use of Nation property or services, including but not limited to, telephones, computers, vehicles, machinery, credit cards, desks, office equipment, and supplies, are for official use only.
 - a. Supervisors have the right to inspect and/or access Nation property;
 - b. at the supervisor's discretion, personal items stored by the employee in Nation property are subject to removal;
 - c. the Nation is not responsible or accountable for loss or theft of personal property of employees.

D. Dress Code and Personal Appearance

Dress, grooming, and personal hygiene contribute to the morale of all employees and affect the business image of the Navajo Nation to clients and the public. Therefore, during business hours or when representing the Nation, employees' dress, grooming and personal hygiene should be appropriate for the work they do.

1. Employees who have regular contact with the public are expected to dress in a manner that is normally acceptable in similar organizations and present a clean, neat, business-like appearance.
2. Dress and personal appearance of employees who do not regularly meet the public may be governed by the requirements of safety or comfort, but should still be as neat and business-like as working conditions permit.
3. Certain employees may be required to meet special dress, grooming, and/or hygiene standards depending on their job. In these situations, Supervisors are responsible for establishing and issuing standards for appropriate dress and appearance.
4. Supervisors may also designate a "casual day" for employees to dress in a more casual fashion than is normally required. On such occasions, employees are still expected to present a neat appearance.

5. Ripped, disheveled clothing, unkempt appearance, or other inappropriate clothing or appearance is not permitted. An employee may be asked to leave the workplace until properly dressed or groomed. Under such circumstances, the employee will not be compensated for the time away from work.

E. Child Care

1. Employees are responsible for making appropriate child care arrangements. Except when specifically permitted, employees are not to bring children to work or have their children loitering on Navajo Nation premises after school hours.
2. The Navajo Nation recognizes the importance of allowing mothers who choose to breast-feed their children the opportunity to continue after returning to work. The employee and her supervisor shall make the necessary arrangements.

XVIII. PERSONNEL RECORDS

The Department of Personnel Management shall establish and maintain official personnel records for employees of the Navajo Nation.

A. Location of Records

Employee records shall be located at the Department of Personnel Management or other locations for storage purposes under restricted access. Employee files shall not be removed from the Department of Personnel Management.

B. Contents

Employee records shall include information such as, employment applications; background check final determination notice; letters of reference; pay and benefits; training and education; performance evaluations; corrective or termination actions; and other necessary information as specified by the Department of Personnel Management.

C. Updating

Employees are encouraged to keep their personnel files current by submitting to the Department of Personnel Management updated information on their experience, education, and training.

D. Confidentiality

Information in an employee's personnel file is considered confidential. However, the information may be disclosed in compliance with a lawful investigation or subpoena. Access to and release of information contained in the personnel records shall be limited to only those persons who have a legally recognized need to know.

E. Examination of File by Employee

Employees may examine their personnel file upon written request to the Department of Personnel Management. The employee must provide evidence of his/her identity. Examination of records shall be in the presence of the Human Resources Director or authorized representative.

F. Release of Information

1. Upon submittal of a notarized Authorization for Release of Information, the employee information from that employee's personnel record may be released to a third party.
2. Certain information contained in the employee file is considered public information and therefore may be released without employee authorization. These include, but are not limited to, title, department, and work site.

G. Record Retention

Upon termination, an employee's personnel record shall be considered inactive, but will be maintained for a period of three years beyond date of termination. After three years, the record will be archived at the Department of Personnel Management.

XIX. VETERANS PREFERENCE

A. Policy

The policy of the Navajo Nation (Nation) is to comply with all applicable laws that govern the employment relationship between the Nation and its employees. Consistent with the provisions of applicable laws and policies, the Nation gives preference in employment to Veterans of the United States (U.S.) Armed Forces. Recognizing their sacrifice, Navajo Veterans' Preference recognizes the economic loss suffered by citizens who have served their country in uniform, restores Veterans to a favorable competitive position for Nation employment and acknowledges the larger obligation owed to disabled Veterans.

Eligible Veterans receive preference for initial employment and a higher retention standing in the event of layoffs. However, the Veterans' preference does not guarantee the Veteran a job, nor does it give Veterans preference in internal personnel actions such as promotion, transfer, reassignment and reinstatement.

B. A Veteran discharged from the U.S. Armed Forces or the National Guard or Reserve under honorable conditions following more than 180 calendar days of active duty shall be given preference in employment.

1. Preference in employment on the initial hire and retention for those Veterans who were honorably discharged or the spouses of Veterans shall be provided in the following order:

- a. A Veteran who has an existing compensable service-connected disability who is able to work.
- b. A Veteran of any war or peacetime who has served on active duty for 181 calendar days or more or who has served 180 calendar days or more, other than for training, since January 31, 1955 and who was discharged or separated under honorable conditions from the U.S. Armed Forces.
- c. A Veteran who sustained a service-connected disability prior to completing the 180 calendar days of active duty.
- d. The spouse of a Veteran who cannot qualify for employment because of a total and permanent disability or the spouse of a Veteran killed in the line of duty or missing in action, captured by a hostile force(s); forcibly detained or interned by a foreign government/power .
- e. The un-remarried surviving spouse of a Veteran who died of a service-connected disability.

2. An individual applying for Veterans Preference must complete an Application for Veterans' Employment Preference when submitting a Navajo Nation Application for Employment along with a copy of DD Form 214 or DD Form 215 to receive preference.

C. Recruitment

1. Advertising of Vacant Positions

All vacancy announcements must be advertised for a minimum of 10 working days and include the phrase, "Veterans' Preference Applies" in the posting.

2. Application for Employment

- a. Each employment application will contain a general information document regarding Veterans' Preference and an Application for Veterans' Employment Preference.
- b. The Nation's employment application requires the applicant to indicate whether or not they are claiming Veterans' Preference. In those cases, the applicant will be asked to complete the Application for Veterans' Employment Preference requiring them to identify which of the eligibility criteria applies to them.
- c. The applicant will be required to furnish the Department of Personnel Management the documentation necessary to prove Veterans' Preference eligibility on or before the closing date of the position to be considered for preference. Proof of Veterans' Preference eligibility includes:
 - 1) Veterans and spouses of disabled Veterans must furnish a copy of the DD Form 214 and/or 215, military discharge papers, and/or other verification from the Department of Defense (DOD) or Military Branches.
 - 2) Spouses of disabled Veterans and un-remarried surviving spouse of a deceased Veteran must provide:
 - i. Certification from DOD or Military Branches that the Veteran is totally and permanently disabled or documentation certifying the service-connected death of the Veteran.
 - ii. Evidence of marriage to the Veteran.
 - iii. A statement that the spouse is still married to the Veteran or that the spouse is not re-married at the time of the application for employment.
- d. Absence of required documentation invalidates the claim and the applicant is not eligible for Veterans' Preference.

D. Interview and Selection

- 1. The Department of Personnel Management will inform the hiring authority whether Veteran applicants are eligible for preference and whether they meet the minimum qualifications of the respective position. Applicants who meet the qualification requirements shall be referred by Department of Personnel Management in the following order or priority:
 - a. Enrolled Navajos with re-employment preference
 - b. Enrolled Navajo Veterans

- c. Other enrolled Navajo applicants
 - d. Non-Navajo spouses of enrolled Navajos
 - e. Non-Navajos
2. The Department of Personnel Management does not use a numerically based qualification assessment process therefore preference is given at each step of the employment consideration process to preference eligible applicants, provided such individual possesses the minimum qualifications necessary to perform the duties of the position. Qualified Veterans receive the same level of preference despite disability status.
 3. All qualified eligible Veterans must be granted an interview by the hiring authority.
 4. If the best qualified applicant, including a preference eligible Veteran are equally qualified, and no further evaluation occurs, the Veteran must be given selection preference. If there is a non-Veteran who is the best qualified for a position, the non-Veteran could be employed if an eligible Veteran does not possess the same level of qualifications. In such cases, reasons why and approval by the hiring authority is required prior to any offer of employment. Documentation of the hiring decision is paramount. In cases where the Veteran is not selected, the hiring authority must be able to justify why the Veteran was not selected.
 5. It is the hiring authority's responsibility to ensure that a letter of non-selection is sent to all applicants, including Veterans, who were interviewed but not selected for a position. The letter of non-selection must be issued within three (3) working days from the time that the selected candidate signs the conditional offer of employment.
 6. An applicant who feels that proper consideration of the Veterans' employment preference has not been provided to him/her shall have the right to appeal to the Department of Personnel Management within 10 working days from the date he/she receives a letter of non-selection.

XX. MILITARY LEAVE

A. Policy
